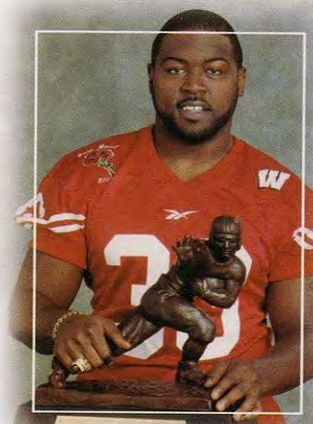
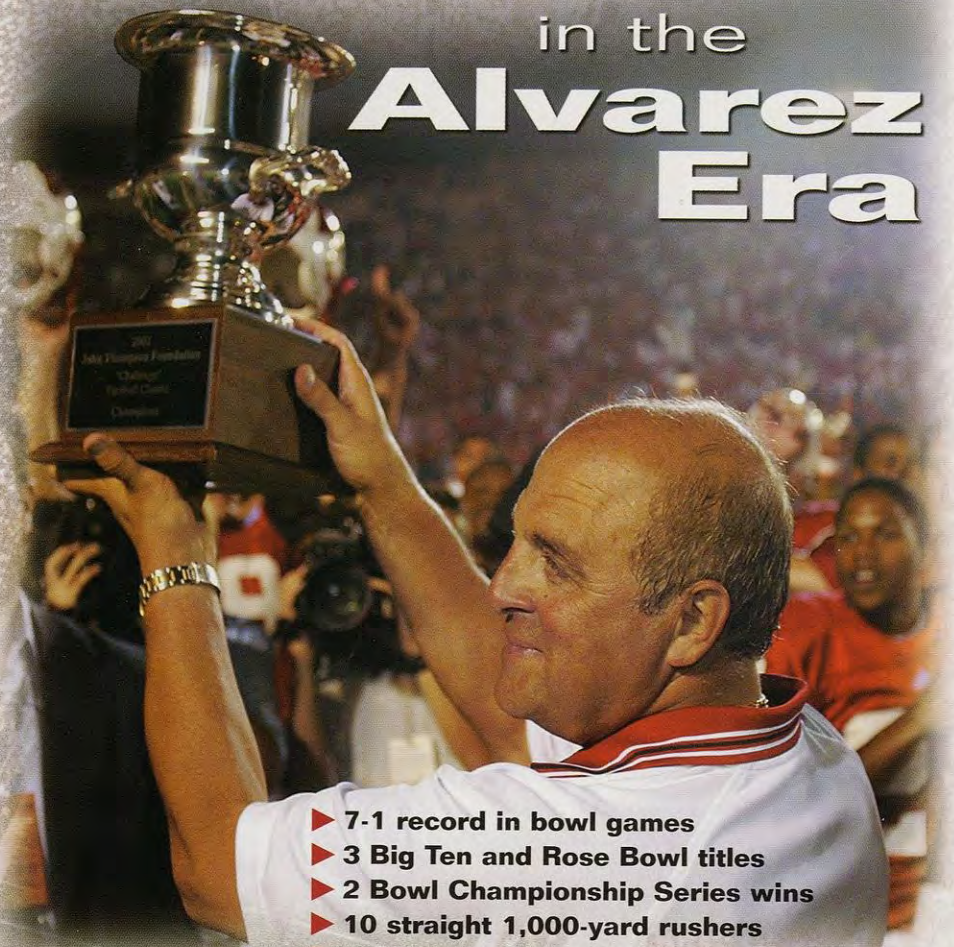
WISCONSIN in the Alvarez Era

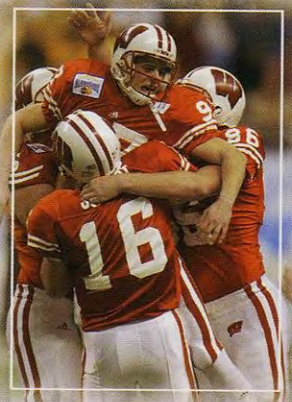


Ron Dayne became college football's all-time rushing leader and won the 1999 Heisman Trophy in the process. The Badgers have had at least one major award finalist each of the past five seasons.

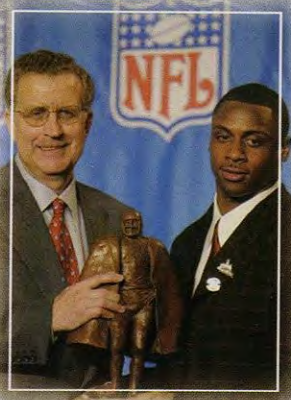
Captains Chris McIntosh and Donnell Thompson hoisted the Big Ten Championship trophy in 1999. Wisconsin has won three Big Ten titles and three Rose Bowls since 1993. The Badgers won back-to-back league crowns in 1998 and 1999.



- 7-1 record in bowl games
- 3 Big Ten and Rose Bowl titles
- 2 Bowl Championship Series wins
- 10 straight 1,000-yard rushers
- 7 first-round NFL draft picks
- 25 All-Americans
- 50 first-team All-Big Ten honorees
- 84 Academic All-Big Ten selections



The Badgers celebrated their seventh bowl win in eight tries after Mike Allen's 37-yard field goal upset 14th-ranked Colorado in the 2002 Alamo Bowl. The Badgers are one of only five teams in the nation with two Bowl Championship Series victories.



Philadelphia Eagles All-Pro defensive back Troy Vincent was named the 2002 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year for his tireless community service as well as his on-field excellence. Vincent was the first of Coach Barry Alvarez's 25 All-Americans and seven first-round NFL draft choices at Wisconsin.

Wisconsin has had a 1,000-yard rusher for a Big Ten-record 10 straight seasons. Only one other school in history has had a longer streak. Michael Bennett (above) helped keep the string going with a 1,681-yard season in 2000.

BOWL SUCCESS [DURING THE ALVAREZ ERA]

Wisconsin's success in bowl games during Coach Barry Alvarez's tenure has been nearly unparalleled.

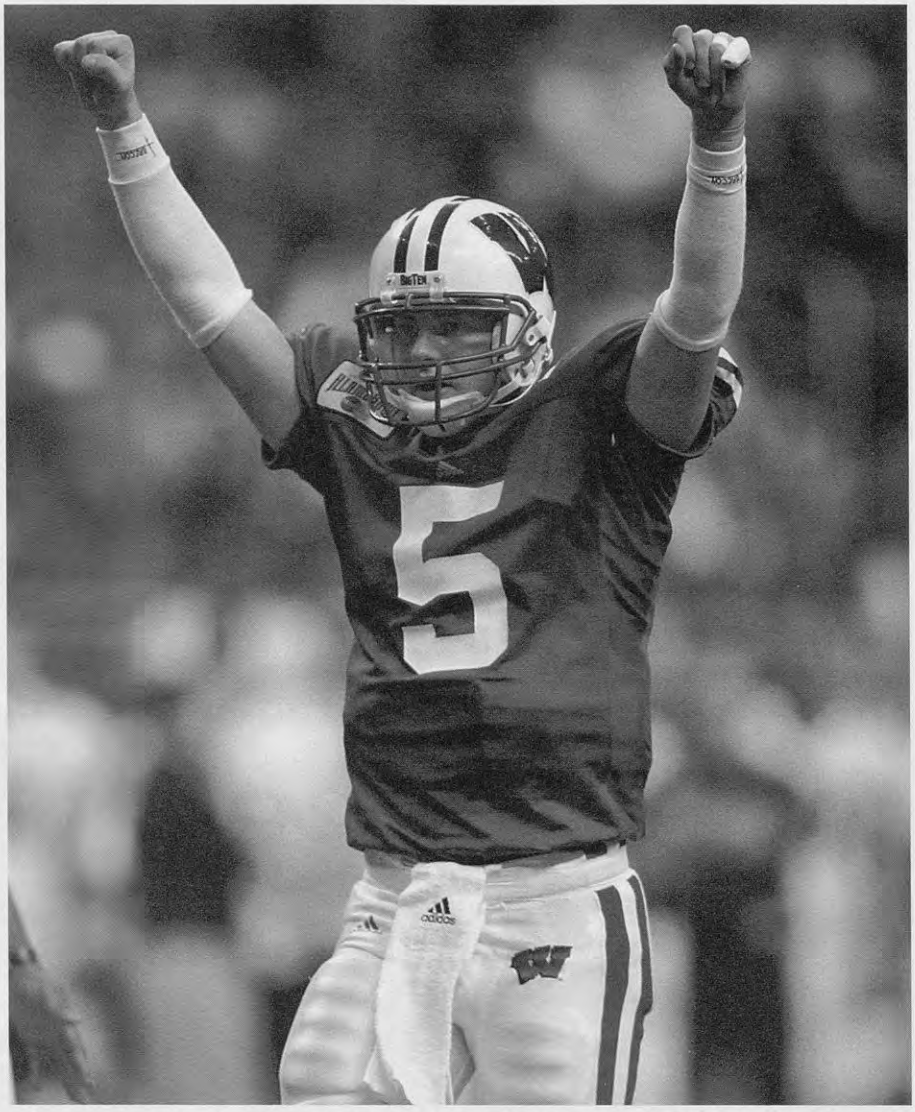
Alvarez has guided the Badgers to a 7-1 (.875) record in bowl games. That winning percentage is second-best in college football history.

Among those seven bowl victories are two Bowl Championship Series wins. Wisconsin is one of only five schools with more than one BCS win. The others? Ohio State, Oklahoma, Florida and Miami.

Last season Wisconsin upset 14th-ranked Colorado, 31-28 OT, in the Alamo Bowl.

Bowl games with the Badgers are also a big hit with Wisconsin's renowned fans. In the past decade, thousands of fans have traveled to watch the Badgers in prime winter destinations like California, Florida, Arizona and Texas.

With eight bowl appearances in the last 10 seasons, it's easy to see why Wisconsin has become a favorite choice among bowl games nationwide.



QB Brooks Bollinger was the offensive MVP as Wisconsin knocked off 14th-ranked Colorado in overtime at the 2002 Alamo Bowl.

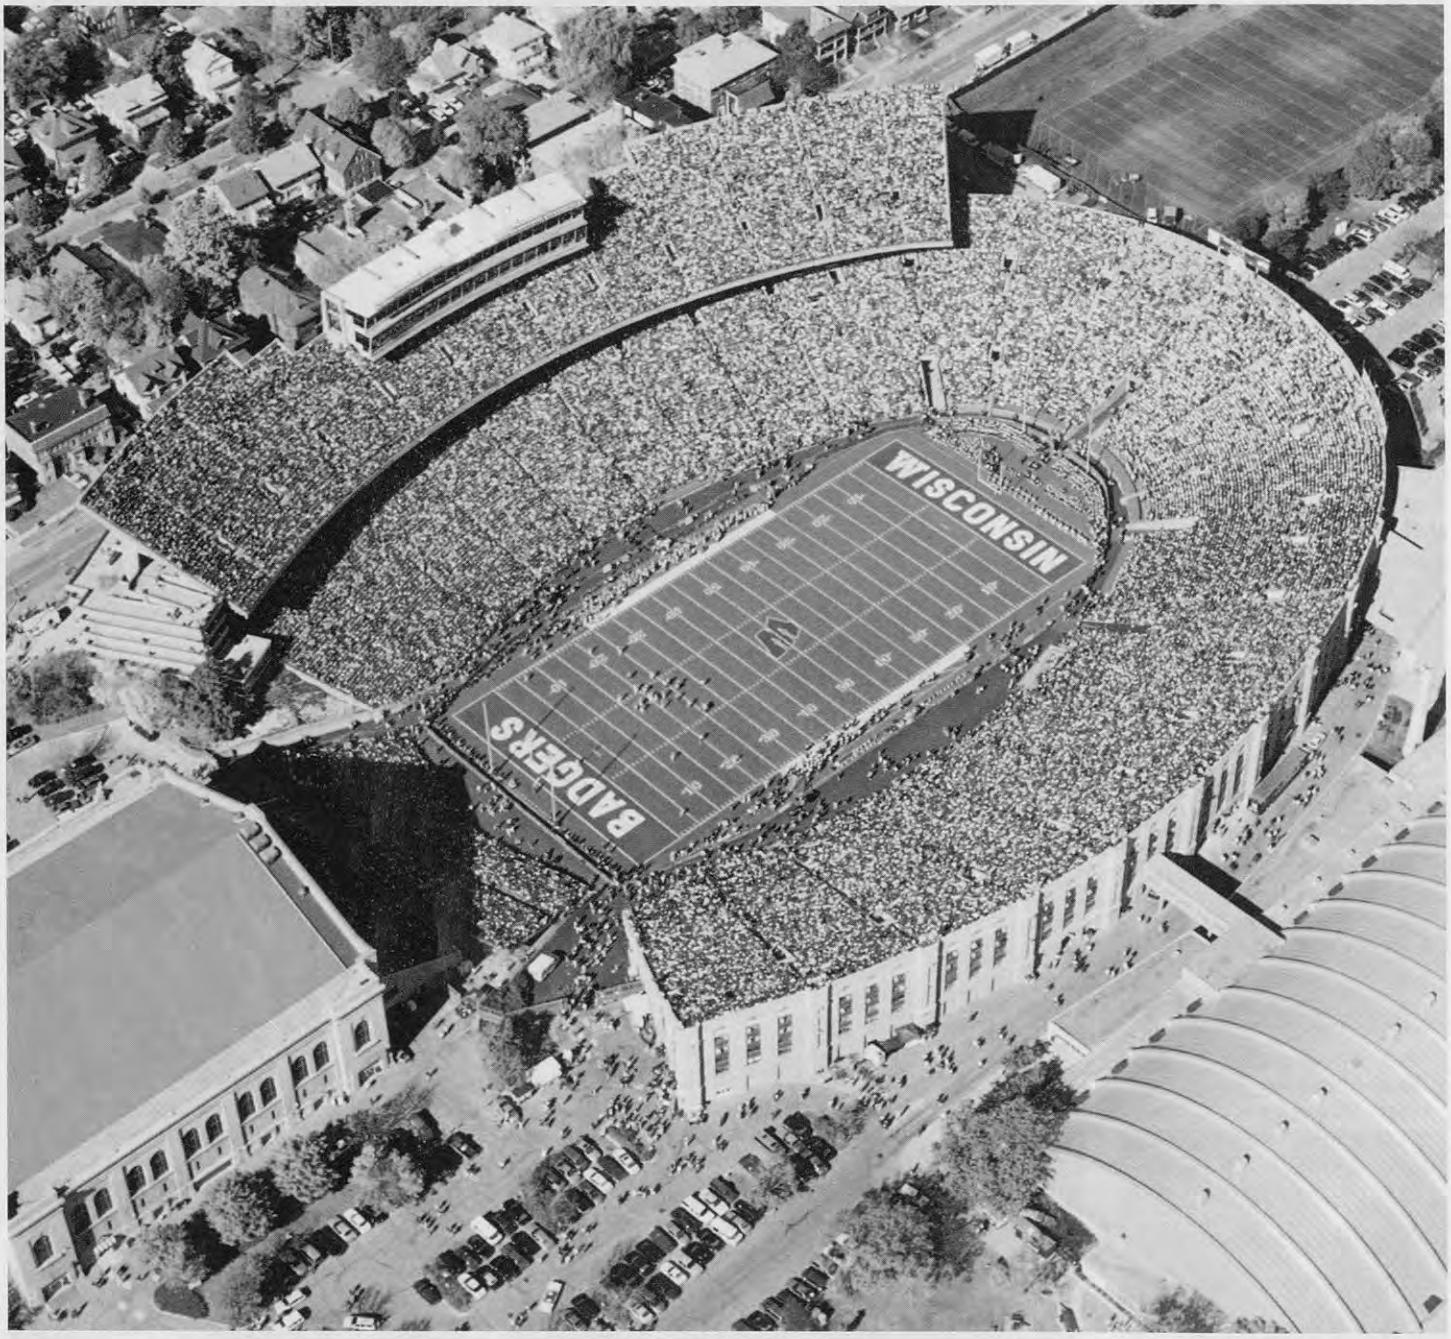
Camp Randall Stadium



Home of the Badgers

Camp Randall Stadium, built in 1917, is home for Wisconsin's football team. Distinguished by its double-deck structure and horseshoe design, Camp Randall Stadium is the nation's fourth-oldest, college-owned facility. It has a seating capacity of 76,634 which ranks among the top 20 largest school-run facilities in the nation.

During the Barry Alvarez era, the Badgers have been a formidable opponent at Camp Randall. Wisconsin is 52-28-3 at home under Alvarez' guidance, including undefeated home slates in the Rose Bowl seasons of 1993 and 1998.

Camp Randall houses the athletic department offices, lounges and study areas for student-athletes, as well as video, training and weight rooms, the training table for team meals and a display of football memorabilia.

The stadium, which is in the midst of an $83.7 million renovation project, is a cornerstone of the school's athletic complex. Located on the same block are the McClain Athletic Facility and the Wisconsin Field House.

Renovations at Camp Randall

The University of Wisconsin Department of Athletics has begun work on the renovation of historic Camp Randall Stadium. Plans to improve the 85-year old facility focus largely on making gameday a more enjoyable experience for the spectators.

The renovation began last winter and will fully conclude in 2005.

The $83.7 million renovation project, when completed, will include:

- increased seating capacity to 79,500;
- installation of FieldTurf, the highly popular artificial playing surface used in many NFL and major college stadiums.
- creation of new and wider concourses and the addition of elevators to provide safe and convenient fan access;
- renovation of old (and the addition of new) restrooms throughout the facility;
- addition of larger and more conveniently located concession stands;
- installation of two video replay boards plus improved sound and lighting systems;
- addition of private suite and club level seating areas on the east side of the stadium;
- construction of a new ticket office with convenient on-site parking;
- development of a consolidated office building for athletic department staff;
- expansion of accessible facilities for disabled fans and visitors.

Separate from the above amenity improvement was a $10 million refurbishing project for the stadium's infrastructure which was completed in the summer of 2002. Improvements were made in the electrical, plumbing and chilled water services at Camp Randall.

The Dave McClain Athletic Facility (right) is the Badgers' indoor training site. Constructed in 1988, the facility features a 90-yard artificial turf field. The football team's locker room, training headquarters, strength and conditioning center and academic facilities are all located in the basement of the building. The facility was named for former Head Coach Dave McClain, who died tragically in the spring of 1986.

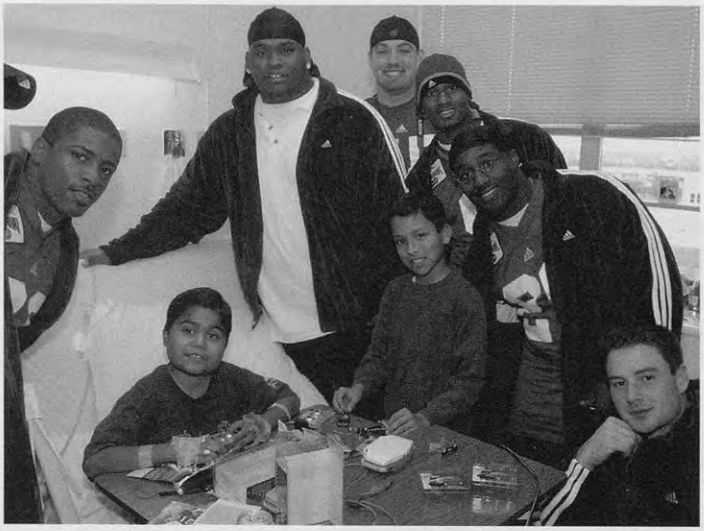
COMMUNITY SERVICE

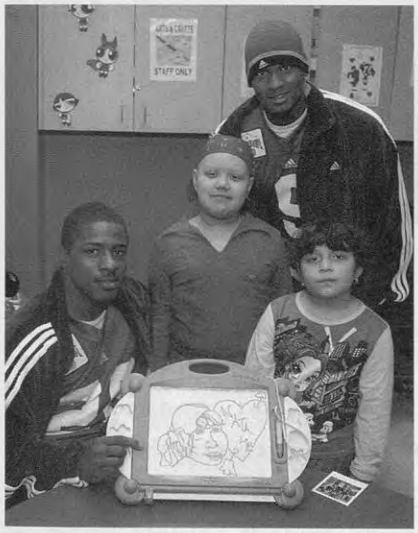
Badgers giving back

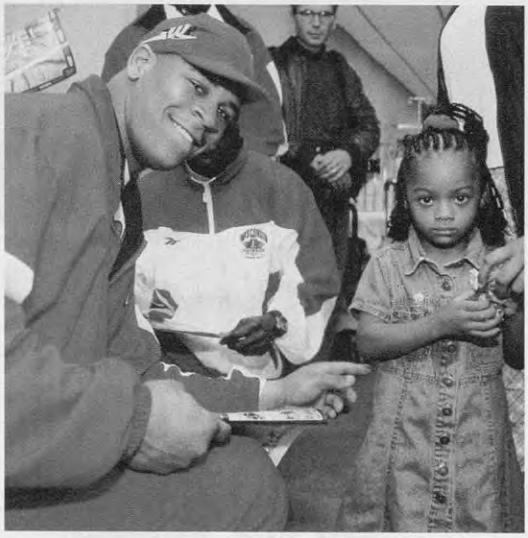
The Wisconsin Department of Athletics has a number of teams that regularly contribute to the city via outreach programs. The Madison community is truly supportive of the UW-Madison athletic teams and their student-athletes.

In appreciation for that support, many student-athletes volunteer frequently in community service projects. Every season, the football team works together on a community service project to give back to Madison.

Among the projects that the Badgers have participated in recently were landscaping and cleanup days in the Eric Circle, Allied Drive, Vera Court and Harmony Park neighborhoods. The team has also participated in several walk-a-thons to raise funds for charitable causes as well as projects with Habitat For Humanity. Players and coaches make visits throughout the year to the UW Childrens' and Veterans' Hospitals, area schools and numerous other charity functions.







GOOD WORKS

Former UW fullback Cecil Martin (left) was named to the American Football Coaches Association "Good Works" team for his community service in 1997 and 1998. He was cited for establishing an offseason program for players to visit the UW Children's Hospital. Martin also served as a mentor at the Southside Community Center, where he tutored and played with children.

Martin continued his charitable support as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles where he won the team's 2000 Ed Block Courage Award.

He also was named an "Unsung Hero" by the NFL Players' Association and was featured on the Fox Sports All-Madden Team as one of the National Football League's "good guys."

"The goal of the Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is to train for total athletic excellence. We profile each student-athlete upon arrival on campus and set up specific training regimens to help players reach their individual potential. The plan is to build overall strength, speed, agility and stamina. Our program is comprehensive and the end result is that we are as productive on the field as possible."

BIG TEN CONFERENCE FOOTBALL

Wisconsin has represented the Big Ten Conference at the Rose Bowl three times since 1993, including the 2000 game against Stanford (above).

TV Exposure

When Big Ten fans aren't packing stadiums, they're watching the most comprehensive college football package on television. A partnership with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPN Regional will allow the Big Ten to televise a record number of games again this fall. More than 90 percent of all Big Ten games will be shown on live TV in 2003, making the Big Ten the most-watched conference in the nation.

Attendance Leader

College football fans flock to Big Ten Conference campuses each fall to watch the nation's premiere teams. At Wisconsin, the crowds at Camp Randall Stadium number nearly 78,000 each week. The Big Ten leads the nation in college football attendance year after year and routinely draws more than four million fans to games on its campuses. The Big Ten has led the nation in attendance every year since the NCAA began keeping records in 1949, a string of 55 consecutive seasons.

BIG TEN™ CONFERENCE

Big Ten Bowl Games For the 2003 Season

The Big Ten boasts one of the deepest college bowl lineups in the nation. The Big Ten also has six other bowl bids guaranteed for member schools each year.

"The Big Ten's association with our bowl partners stabilizes the Conference's post-season future," says Commissioner James Delaney. "They also provide fans with terrific bowl destinations and games with quality opponents."

Playing Football at Wisconsin Means Playing in the National Spotlight

Combine the consistent success of the Badger football program during the Barry Alvarez era with the fact that Wisconsin plays in the conference with the most far-reaching television contract in the nation and you have a recipe for maximum team and individual exposure.

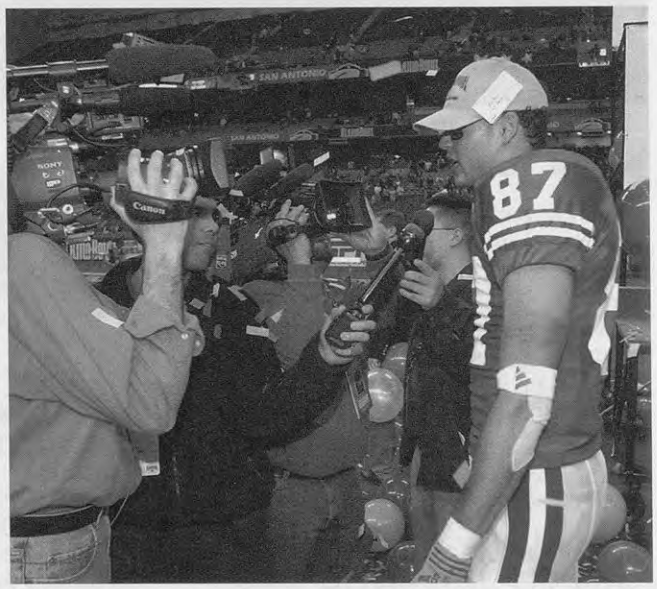
Over the past five seasons, 90 percent of the Badgers' games have been televised live. Three quarters of those contests were aired on national or split-national telecasts. Wisconsin has appeared on ABC, CBS, ESPN, ESPN2, Fox and ESPN Regional in the past five seasons.

The Big Ten Conference, of course, is comprised of schools that reach into some of the nation's largest media markets, including New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Pittsburgh. Since 1990 the average number of games televised per season has nearly tripled and attendance has grown by nearly 20 percent.

The state of Wisconsin is "football-crazy" and the Badgers are at the top of everyone's priority list each Saturday during the fall. It is not uncommon to have representation from 20-25 newspapers, 10-12 television stations and 15-20 radio stations – all from Wisconsin – in attendance at Badger home games. Every home game also is televised on a tape-delayed basis by Wisconsin Public Telvision.

The Wisconsin Radio Network consists of more than 40 stations around the state that broadcast Badger games live to a statewide audience and over the internet. The "Voice of the Badgers," Matt Lepay, is recognized as one of the best in the business.

Additionally, the UW Department of Athletics has one of the nation's most comprehensive web sites. Gameday coverage at UWBADGERS.COM features audio, photos, notes and statistics, interviews and much more. The site is "hit" more than a million times a month.



BIG RATINGS

Wisconsin's thrilling 31-28 OT victory over 14th-ranked Colorado in the 2002 Alamo Bowl was ESPN's highest-rated bowl game of the '02 postseason. In fact, the Badgers-Buffs clash was the highest-rated college football game on ESPN last fall. The game registered a 4.44 rating.

HEAD COACH BARRY ALVAREZ

Having a plan to turn around a major college football program is one thing. Having the ability, confidence and leadership skills to implement and carry out that plan is another thing altogether.

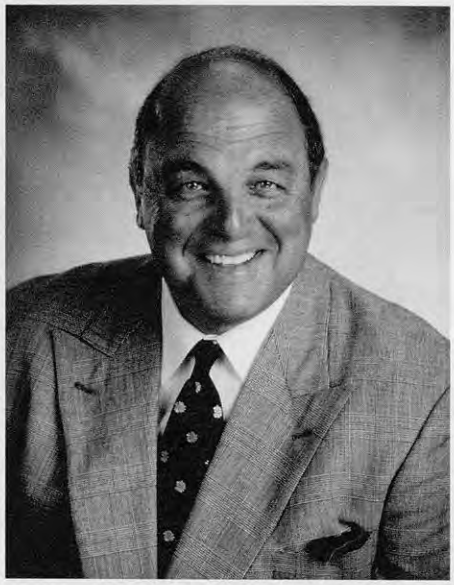
That's why Wisconsin football fans are so fortunate that Barry Alvarez is running the football program they love.

As further evidence of Alvarez's leadership skills, he will take over as Wisconsin's Director of Athletics, serving in a dual role (A.D. and football coach) starting in April of 2004.

In 13 years as the head coach at formerly downtrodden Wisconsin, the 55-year-old Alvarez has built a program that is one of the nation's elite.

When sizing up Alvarez's coaching career, it's easy to get overwhelmed with statistical evidence. Simply, he has restored a proud tradition at Wisconsin, built a fan base that is legendary, won many games and done so in a first-class manner. Consider some of these Alvarez superlatives:

- winningest coach in school history.
- his teams have won at least a share of three Big Ten titles since 1993.
- bowl record of 7-1 (.875).
- coached the four winningest teams in the modern era at Wisconsin.
- one of just 11 coaches with 90 wins at one Big Ten school.



- is one of only three coaches to have won more than one Bowl Championship Series game.
- won back-to-back league titles in 1998 and 1999. Wisconsin hadn't done that since 1896-97.
- coached five national award winners, including Ron Dayne (Heisman Trophy, Doak Walker Award, Maxwell Award), Jamar Fletcher (Jim Thorpe Award and Kevin Stemke (Ray Guy Award).

Alvarez, who grew up in the mining areas of western Pennsylvania, made a steady climb in the high school coaching ranks before getting his college start from former Iowa Coach Hayden Fry. He got Alvarez to join his Hawkeye staff in 1979, one year after Alvarez's Mason City (Iowa) High School team won a state championship. The Hawkeyes played in six bowls during Alvarez's eight years in Iowa City. His star player with the Hawkeyes was Larry Station, the school's career tackle leader and an All-American on the field and in the classroom.

Then-Notre Dame Coach Lou Holtz hired him from Iowa and during Alvarez's three years there, he was promoted – linebackers coach, defensive coordinator and assistant head coach – every season. Notre Dame was 32-5 while Alvarez was there and won the 1988 national title.

Four of Alvarez's Fighting Irish linebackers earned All-America praise, including Michael Stonebreaker in 1988.

Alvarez said his college coach, the legendary Bob Devaney, urged him to set a timetable for becoming a head coach by the time he turned 42. Alvarez was hired at UW on Jan. 2, 1990, one day after the Fighting Irish defeated Colorado in the Orange Bowl. His 42nd birthday was three days earlier.

The successes of Alvarez's teams have confirmed his status as one of the elite coaches in football. Seemingly every year, suitors have called the football office to see if Alvarez wanted to take on another rebuilding effort. Alvarez has answered those inquiries. "This (Wisconsin) is my program, and I think I've got my stamp on it," Alvarez said.

The Book on Barry

- Barry Alvarez is one of only three coaches in collegiate history (and the only coach in the Big Ten) to win more than one Bowl Championship Series game. Alvarez and Oklahoma's Bob Stoops are both 2-0, and former Florida coach Steve Spurrier is 2-1.

- Alvarez is one of just 11 coaches in Big Ten history to have won at least 90 games during their career at one conference institution. Others on the list include Amos Alonzo Stagg, Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Hayden Fry and Duffy Daugherty.

- He led the Badgers to the three winningest seasons (11 in 1998, 10 in 1993 and 10 in 1999) in Wisconsin history.

- Barry coached winners of national player of the year awards by the Associated Press, Walter Camp and The Sporting News (Ron Dayne) and recipients of the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award and Doak Walker Award (Dayne), Jim Thorpe Award (Jamar Fletcher) and Ray Guy Award (Kevin Stemke).

The Alvarez Family

- Alvarez is the only coach in Big Ten history to win the Rose Bowl in back-to-back years.

- He coached Wisconsin to consecutive league championships (1998-99), something that hadn't been accomplished in Madison for more than 100 years.

- Barry became the winningest coach in Wisconsin history with a 40-10 rout of 11th-ranked Michigan State in 1999.

- Alvarez renewed spirit in a program that has attracted nearly five million fans to Camp Randall Stadium during his 13-year tenure and sold more than 50,000 season tickets nine years in succession.

- He joined Ohio State's Woody Hayes as the only coaches in Big Ten history to win at least three Rose Bowls. Alvarez' Wisconsin clubs have captured three in the past 10 years. Hayes' Buckeyes won four Rose Bowls over a span of 20 years.

- Alvarez owns a 7-1 career bowl record, including a perfect 3-0 mark at the Rose Bowl. Alvarez's career winning percentage in bowls (.875) is second-best all-time for coaches with a minimum of seven bowls.

- Barry built a fan base so large, that Wisconsin has played before crowds of at least 70,000 in Camp Randall Stadium 62 games in a row.

- Alvarez led the UW to eight bowls in 10 seasons after the school qualified for only six bowls in the previous 103 years.

- He coached six consensus first-team All-Americans (defensive end Tom Burke, tailback Ron Dayne, cornerback Jamar Fletcher, offensive tackle Aaron Gibson, offensive tackle Chris McIntosh and center Cory Raymer).

Baseball fan Barry Alvarez sang "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" during the seventh-inning stretch at a Cubs-Cardinals game in 1999.

Tom Lemming (Prep Football Report) on Alvarez

"Alvarez is the nation's No. 1 recruiter. He is a truly honest, sincere and personable coach with a great rapport. Recruits take to him immediately, and so do their parents. His well-earned national recognition gives him an edge when recruiting prospects."

Alvarez's Wisconsin Teams

2002 (8-6): A season-opening five-game winning streak and league wins over Michigan State and Minnesota qualified the Badgers for their eighth Alvarez-era bowl game, a 31-28 OT win over 14th-ranked Colorado in the Alamo Bowl. First-team All-American Jim Leonhard led the nation with a Big Ten record-tying 11 interceptions. Anthony Davis (1,555 yards) gave UW a 1,000-yard rusher for a Big Ten-record 10th straight year.

2001: (5-7): Several individual achievements highlighted a season in which the Badgers never won or lost more than two straight games. WR Lee Evans set the Big Ten record for receiving yards in a season with 1,545 and RB Anthony Davis led the conference in rushing and gave the UW a 1,000-yard rusher for a Big Ten-record ninth consecutive season. Evans and Davis were All-Americans and six Badgers earned first-team All-Big Ten acclaim, including DL Wendell Bryant who became a first-round NFL draft choice. The Badgers lost by a field goal to both Oregon and Michigan.

2000 (9-4): A five-game winning streak to end the season highlighted the Sun Bowl champions' 9-4 season. Fighting injuries and suspensions, the Badgers had a difficult time getting consistency in the early part of the league season. Jamar Fletcher (Jim Thorpe Award) and Kevin Stemke (inaugural Ray Guy Award) allowed UW to be the only school in the nation with two different players winning major awards.

1999 (10-2): A 17-9 win over Stanford in the Rose Bowl allowed Wisconsin to become the first Big Ten school in history to win the "Granddaddy of Them All" in back-to-back campaigns. The 10-2 Badgers finished fourth in both the media and coaches final polls. Wisconsin defeated five nationally rated foes for the first time in school history and concluded the year with eight consecutive victories. The Badgers led the Big Ten in both scoring offense and scoring defense. Ron Dayne became the NCAA's all-time leading rusher and then walked away with the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award and Doak Walker Award. Chris McIntosh (Outland Trophy) and Vitaly Pisetsky (Mosi Tatupu and Lou Groza Awards) were major award finalists. Alvarez was forced to coach from the press box or hospital in eight games after a mid-season knee surgery.

1998 (11-1): The winningest season (11-1) in school history ended in dramatic fashion with a thrilling 38-31 upset of sixth-ranked UCLA at the Rose Bowl. Ron Dayne keyed the win with 246 yards rushing. Wisconsin led the nation in scoring defense and turnover margin. The Badgers' nine-game win streak to open the season tied a school record. Tom Burke (NCAA sack leader) and Aaron Gibson (a finalist for the Lombardi Award and the Outland Trophy) were consensus All-Americans. Alvarez was Big Ten Coach of the Year.

1997 (8-5): A six-game winning streak catapulted the Badgers to a second consecutive eight-win season and berth in the Outback Bowl vs. Georgia. The Badgers joined the '37 Michigan team as the only squads in league history to win three one-point decisions. Ron Dayne earned first-team All-America honors and Matt Davenport won two games with last-second field goals.

1996 (8-5): The Badgers opened quickly with a 3-0 non-league slate before losing four games (three by a combined total of 10 points) to highly ranked foes. The UW closed 4-1 and posted a 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl. Ron Dayne set an NCAA freshman rushing record and had 2,109 yards, including the bowl win.

1995 (4-5-2): With the most inexperienced squad in the Big Ten and facing the nation's most difficult schedule (according to the Seattle Times), the Badgers posted a 4-5-2 mark. Darrell Bevell broke many passing records at the UW. The 17-9 upset at Penn State broke the NCAA's longest win streak (20 games).

1994 (8-3-1): Wisconsin won its second straight January bowl game by defeating Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl. The regular season featured a win at Michigan for the first time since 1962. Center Cory Raymer was a consensus All-American. Seven players were drafted by the NFL.

1993 (10-1-1): The 10-1-1 Badgers were Big Ten co-champions, beat UCLA in the Rose Bowl and were ranked as high as fifth (coaches) in the final polls. The UW had the NCAA's largest attendance increase, and its .875 winning percentage was the best by a Big Ten team since '79. A school-record eight players were named first-team All-Big Ten. Brent Moss was the Badgers' first Big Ten MVP since 1962.

1992 (5-6): The UW was 5-6 and climbed in the Big Ten standings for the third season in a row. The Badgers upset 12th-ranked Ohio State, the first win over a nationally rated foe in eight years. Wisconsin received votes in the national polls for the first time in Alvarez' career and ended the year one victory short of a bowl bid. Three of the losses were by a total of four points.

1991 (5-6): Wisconsin improved its win total by four games, the fourth-largest improvement in the NCAA. Troy Vincent was an All-American, runner-up for the Jim Thorpe Award and the No. 7 pick in the NFL draft. A victory at Minnesota broke a 23-game road losing streak.

1990 (1-10): Wisconsin was within striking distance entering the fourth quarter in 10 games, although its only victory was over Ball State. UW had the third-best attendance gain nationally.

BCS Perfection

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) format was established in 1998 to help determine a true national champion. Four bowls (Rose, Fiesta, Orange and Sugar) are considered BCS bowls. Since the format was instituted, the Badgers are one of only five schools in the nation with more than one BCS game victory.

KEVIN COSGROVE

Defensive Coordinator & Linebackers

One constant on defense during the Barry Alvarez era has been that an inside linebacker nearly always leads the club in tackles. Another constant during the Alvarez era has been that Kevin Cosgrove has led the linebacker contingent.

Cosgrove, a member of Alvarez's first coaching staff at the UW, has coached linebackers for 13 years. For the last nine years, Cosgrove has also coordinated the Wisconsin defense.

That's a defense that has been among the most fundamentally sound in college football and that continues to produce standout players.

A year ago Wisconsin was ninth nationally in turnover margin and featured the national interceptions leader in defensive back Jim Leonhard.

In 2001 the Badgers boasted the nation's leading tackler in linebacker Nick Greisen. Greisen joined cornerback Mike Echols and Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year Wendell Bryant as first-team All-Big Ten selections. Bryant, a Cosgrove recruit, was the 12th overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft.

Wisconsin's 2000 defense boasted the winner of the Jim Thorpe Award (Jamar Fletcher) and Big Ten co-Defensive Lineman of the Year (Bryant). Fletcher was a Cosgrove recruit.

The Badger defense of 1999 was fifth nationally in scoring defense and boasted the Big Ten's top defense for scoring, total yards and pass efficiency. UW was second in rushing defense.

Cosgrove's 1998 defensive team finished among the top 10 nationally in all four major categories. The Badgers led the nation in scoring defense, surrendering just 10.2 ppg.

In 11 of his 13 years on staff, a Cosgrove-coached linebacker has topped the team in tackles. Three times Cosgrove's linebackers – Pete Monty in '96 and Nick Greisen in '00 and '01 – led the conference in tackles, too. Monty is the Badgers' No. 1 career tackler.

Cosgrove has 19 years of experience in the Big Ten having worked at Illinois from 1980-87. He was also a defensive assistant at Colorado State (1989) and Southeast Missouri State (1988).

Cosgrove's list of Badger recruits includes Aaron Gibson, Monty, Terrell Fletcher, plus Bryant and Jamar Fletcher. At Illinois, Cosgrove signed Jeff George (NFL's No. 1 draft pick), Moe Gardner (two-time All-American) and Darrick Brownlow (Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year).

Kevin and his wife, Shelly, have two sons (Clint and Connor) and a daughter (Shannon).

JEFF HORTON

Quarterbacks

Jeff Horton's reputation as a first-rate developer of quarterbacks continues to flourish. His four-year term as quarterbacks coach at Wisconsin has produced some significant successes.

In his rookie season at UW, Horton had to replace two-year starter Mike Samuel at the controls. What ensued was the development of Brooks Bollinger into the winningest quarterback in Wisconsin history. Under Horton's tutelage, Bollinger engineered nine career fourth-quarter comeback wins; had a 30-12 record as a starter (one of only seven QBs in Big Ten history with 30 wins); finished No. 2 at the UW in career passing yards, attempts, completions and touchdowns; and became one of only seven players in Big Ten history with at least 20 rushing TDs and 30 passing TDs. Bollinger was drafted by the New York Jets in 2003

Horton guided Bollinger through a rookie season in 1999 that saw the signal-caller start his first game in front of more than 90,000 fans in historic Ohio Stadium and later lead the club to a Rose Bowl championship win. Bollinger, 19 years old at the time, was the league's freshman of the year and finished second in the conference in pass efficiency.

With Bollinger battling injuries for much of his sophomore and junior seasons, Horton was forced to go to the bench. The result was the development of Jim Sorgi into a quarterback the Badgers could count on when needed. Now a senior, Sorgi enters the 2003 campaign as the starter and beneficiary of Horton's guidance during Bollinger's years as the starter.

Horton, the former head coach at both Nevada and UNLV, earned his reputation for quarterback development at both of those stops. Chris Vargas, his signalcaller with the Wolf Pack, finished second nationally in total offense in 1993 and Jon Denton threw for more than 7,000 yards and broke 10 NCAA records in two seasons at UNLV.

The Horton Family

Horton's head coaching experience included five years at UNLV (1994-98) and one season at Nevada (1993). Horton also worked five years as an assistant at Nevada and two years (1991-92) at UNLV.

His 1994 UNLV squad won the Las Vegas Bowl and Horton was named co-Big West Coach of the Year.

Horton entered college coaching at Minnesota (1984) where he was a graduate assistant.

An active member of the American Football Coaches Association, Horton has served on the public relations (twice) and ethics (once) committees.

A 1981 graduate of Nevada, Horton earned a master's degree in educational administration from the University of San Francisco in 1993.

His wife's name is Teri.

JIM HUEBER

Offensive Line

Sometimes a college football program becomes known for producing star performers at a specific position. The case can be made that Wisconsin develops as many top-flight offensive linemen as any program in the nation.

Jim Hueber has coached Badger linemen for eight seasons and he is the coach responsible for helping build the reputation of Wisconsin's strong line play.

Hueber, entering his 12th year at Wisconsin and his 20th in the Big Ten (he coached for eight years at Minnesota), has worked with 11 offenses which ranked in the top 25 nationally in rushing. Six of the offenses he's coached led the Big Ten in rushing offense, including three of the last seven at Wisconsin.

Hueber's lines have paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in 10 straight seasons. That's a Big Ten record.

In 2002, tailback Anthony Davis rushed for a UW sophomore-record 1,555 yards behind Hueber's line that included Rimington Trophy finalist Al Johnson. Davis was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 2001 and has rushed for more yards than anyone in the nation the past two seasons combined.

The 2000 Badgers broke in a new tailback and fought a lot of lineup inconsistencies, but Michael Bennett finished third nationally in rushing. Three of Hueber's seniors (Casey Rabach, Bill Ferrario and Dave Costa) earned pro contracts.

His 1999 line helped Ron Dayne become college football's career rushing leader. Among Hueber's blockers was Chris McIntosh, the league's 1999 Offensive Lineman of the Year and a finalist for the Outland Trophy.

One of his other former pupils was Aaron Gibson, a finalist for the Lombardi Award and the Outland Trophy. Gibson, like McIntosh, was a consensus All-American and first-round NFL draft pick. More than 25 of Hueber's former players have made NFL rosters.

Hueber also coached running backs for three seasons (1992-94) at UW. He tutored Big Ten MVP Brent Moss and Terrell Fletcher in 1993 when that duo combined for 2,633 yards.

Jim and his wife, Nancy, have four children: Jeffrey, Jonathan, Joseph and Kristine.

ROB IANELLO

Tight Ends

Rob Ianello, the recruiting coordinator (since 1994) and wide receivers coach (since 1997) at Arizona, was named Wisconsin's tight ends coach last March.

Ianello, who was promoted to the position of passing game coordinator just before coming to Wisconsin, last season coached Pac-10 receiving leader Bobby Wade, who caught 93 passes for 1,389 yards and eight touchdowns. Wade teamed with Andrae Thurman for 154 catches in 2002, the most in Arizona history by a receiving duo.

The Wildcats' 1998 squad was 12-1, ranked fourth nationally and defeated Nebraska in the Holiday Bowl. That team's offense was the first in Pac-10 history to register five straight games of 500 yards or more of total offense. Arizona's '99 offense ranked No. 1 in the Pac-10 and No. 3 nationally (Dennis Northcutt caught 88 passes, then a school record).

"I am thrilled to have Rob return to Wisconsin," UW head coach Barry Alvarez said. "He was a member of our original staff here in 1990 and helped us build our program from the beginning. In addition to being a strong recruiter, he developed into a fine football coach. I'm very pleased to have him re-join us."

Ianello was the on-campus recruiting coordinator at Wisconsin from 1990-91 and the recruiting coordinator for the Badgers from 1992-93. It was during those years that Wisconsin built its 1994 Rose Bowl champion.

Prior to joining Alvarez's first staff at Wisconsin, Ianello was assistant recruiting coordinator with head coach Bill Curry at Alabama in 1988-89 (the Crimson Tide won the '89 SEC title and earned a Sugar Bowl berth). That staff signed 17 of the eventual 22 starters on Alabama's 1992 national championship team. Ianello was a graduate assistant for the Crimson Tide in 1987.

In 1999 Ianello was named one of the top 10 recruiters in the nation by ESPN.com and one of the top six recruiters in the country by The Sporting News.

Ianello was elected to the Board of Trustees of the American Football Coaches Association in January of 2003 (he's the only assistant coach on the board). The Board formulates policy and provides direction for the AFCA, which was founded in 1922 by Amos Alonzo Stagg, John Heisman and others. Ianello also chairs the AFCA's Assistant Coaches Committee and is the general chairman of the AFCA's all division Assistant Coaches Committee.

A native of Port Chester, N.Y., Ianello is a 1987 graduate of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. He and his wife, Denise (now in her first year as an assistant women's basketball coach at Wisconsin after serving as associate head coach at Arizona), have a 1-year-old son, Zachary.

RON LEE

Defensive Backs

Ron Lee, defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at San Jose State the past two seasons, is in his first season as defensive backs coach at Wisconsin.

"I'm excited to have Ron join our staff," Alvarez said. "I saw him coach first-hand several years ago during a visit to Colorado State and he impressed me then. He has a solid background and knowledge of the game. We're fortunate to have him with us."

San Jose State ranked No. 3 nationally in passes intercepted (23) in 2002 and No. 4 nationally in turnovers gained (38). Wisconsin was tied for fourth (22) and 12th (35), respectively, in those two categories last season. Spartans' free safety Gerald Jones finished third in the nation with eight interceptions in 2002. San Jose State was the only school in the nation with three players ranked among the top 100 nationally in interceptions last season. Wisconsin strong safety Jim Leonhard led the nation in interceptions with a Big Ten record-tying 11.

Lee went to San Jose State after serving as defensive backs coach at Colorado State from 1993-2000. During that time, Lee coached the 1995 Jim Thorpe Award (nation's best defensive back) winner (Greg Myers). Colorado State led the nation in turnover margin in 1997.

Lee was defensive backs coach at Idaho in 1992, defensive backs coach/special teams coordinator at Portland State in 1991 and served as a graduate assistant coach at Miami (Fla.) from 1989-90.

Lee has ample experience with winning football programs. In addition to Miami's national title in 1989, he was a part of five conference titles at Colorado State, one at Idaho and one at Portland State. Lee has coached in seven bowl games (two at Miami and five at Colorado State) as well as the NCAA Division II playoffs (Portland State was a 1991 semifinalist). In addition, he played for Washington State's 1988 Eagle Aloha Bowl winner.

Lee, a native of Tulare, Calif., is a 1989 graduate of Washington State, where he was a four-year letterman (1985-88) as a defensive back for the Cougars. He led the Pac-10 in fumbles forced in 1986. Lee earned a B.A. in child and family studies from Washington State in 1989. He is married (Eileen) and has five children (Aubree, 11; Jamison, 10; Kayla, 9; Christopher, 4; and Madison, 1).

HENRY MASON

Wide Receivers

When college football pundits discuss programs known for great receivers, Wisconsin isn't usually among the first schools mentioned -- but it should be.

In eight seasons with the Badgers, Henry Mason has quietly built a reputation for developing and bringing major league talent to the UW campus.

The Badgers, of course, maintain one of the nation's most potent ground games. But Mason's pass-catchers have been performing at a very high level for years, too. In the mid-1990s Tony Simmons and Donald Hayes formed one of the best tandems in college football. That duo ranks fourth (Simmons) and seventh (Hayes) in career yardage at Wisconsin.

In more recent years, Bedford, Ohio natives and Mason recruits Chris Chambers and Lee Evans starred for the Badgers. Evans put together the greatest season ever by a Badger receiver in 2001 when he set the Big Ten record for receiving yards (1,545) in a season. A Biletnikoff Award finalist and first-team All-Big Ten choice, Evans emerged as one of the nation's top offensive threats.

Chambers, the school's MVP in 2000, is one of only three Badgers (Al Toon and Evans are the others) in history to record more than 2,000 yards receiving. Chambers was picked by Miami in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft.

Last season, with Evans injured, Mason developed freshmen Jonathan Orr and Brandon Williams into aerial threats. Orr's 842 receiving yards were a UW rookie record as were Williams' 52 catches. Both players were second-team freshman All-Americans according to The Sporting News.

Mason came to Wisconsin prior to the 1995 season after helping Western Michigan lead the Mid-American Conference in passing three times in four seasons.

His lone head coaching position was an impressive rebuilding effort at Smith-Cotton (Mo.) High School from 1982-90. His 1988 team became the first in 13 years at the school to post a winning record.

Mason served one year as an assistant coach at Baker University (1981) and two seasons at Lexington (Mo.) High School (1979-80) before taking over at Smith-Cotton.

Mason, who lettered in football and baseball at Central Missouri State, was drafted by the Baltimore Colts and played one season with the St. Louis Cardinals.

His wife's name is Debbie.

BRIAN MURPHY

Special Teams & Outside Linebackers

Brian Murphy has been in his current position for just one season, but Wisconsin has already made noticeable improvements on special teams and at outside linebacker.

Murphy, who has worked for the Wisconsin football program in five different capacities, guided special teams units last season that featured the Big Ten's No. 2 punt returner (Jim Leonhard) and No. 8 kickoff returner (Brandon Williams). UW kicker Mike Allen concluded the 2002 campaign by booting a 37-yard field goal to win the Alamo Bowl in overtime.

Murphy also helped tutor OLBs Kareem Timbers and LaMarr Watkins, the latter a true freshman who started the second half of last season.

Murphy had been an administrative assistant for the Badger football program. Prior to that appointment, Murphy was defensive line coach and strength and conditioning coordinator at Lehigh, his alma mater, for one year. He spent the 1998 season as defensive coordinator, linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for the University of San Diego.

Murphy also worked one season (1997) as a graduate assistant with the defensive backs at Baylor.

He helped Wisconsin assistant head coach John Palermo with the Badger defensive line as a graduate assistant in 1995 and 1996. The 1996 squad won the Copper Bowl. Murphy was a G.A. for Bill Callahan's offensive line in 1994 when UW played in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Additionally, he helped direct Wisconsin's recruiting efforts in 1994. Murphy's first position at UW-Madison was as an academic liaison in 1993.

Brian and his wife, Maggie, have two children: son Eamon and daughter Flynn.

JOHN PALERMO

Assistant Head Coach & Defensive Line

Building strong defenses is nothing new to assistant head coach and defensive line boss John Palermo.

During Notre Dame's rise to the top of the college football world in the late 1980s, Palermo and Badger coach Barry Alvarez devised the Fighting Irish defensive game plan.

Palermo is in his 13th year as an aide to Alvarez at Wisconsin, and the duo has, once again, built some fine defenses.

Palermo's latest prized pupil, Wendell Bryant, was the 12th pick overall (to Arizona) in the 2002 NFL Draft after being named the Big Ten's Defensive Lineman of the Year for the second consecutive campaign.

The 1998 Badger defenders ranked first nationally in scoring, fourth in rushing, fifth in total and seventh in pass efficiency defense. That defense was led by Tom Burke, the hard-charging defensive end tutored by Palermo. Burke led the nation and set a Big Ten record for quarterback sacks. Burke was Palermo's second All-America end at UW.

Palermo's first national honor recipient at UW was Tarek Saleh, who set many school sack and TFL marks and earned All-America praise in 1996.

Palermo has also been a strong recruiter at UW having drawn Saleh, Tennessee Titan Bobby Myers and prep All-American Anttaj Hawthorne to the UW from Connecticut.

As assistant head coach, Palermo had to step in for Alvarez at Minnesota in 2000 to serve as head coach. Alvarez was out after knee surgery and Palermo helped the Badgers to a 20-17 overtime victory.

Palermo's time at Wisconsin has been split between coaching outside linebackers (1991-94) and the defensive line (1995-present). Before his appointment with the Badgers, Palermo was head coach at Austin Peay State (1990) and an assistant at Notre Dame (1988-89), Minnesota (1984-87), Appalachian State (1983), Memphis State (1980-82) and Austin Peay State (1979).

His star player prior to UW was former college lineman of the year Chris Zorich, a consensus All-American at Notre Dame.

John, and his wife, Donna, have a son (Jason) and a daughter (Jessica). Jason is a Badger sophomore football player.

BRIAN WHITE

Offensive Coordinator & Running Backs

Fifth-year offensive coordinator Brian White continues his ascent to the elite level of college football coaches. The enthusiastic White, who has coached UW running backs since 1995, continues to make his mark both on the field and the recruiting trail.

In four years directing the offense and calling the plays, the former college quarterback has left his imprint on the Badger program.

In his rookie season at the controls of the offense (1999), the Badgers set a school scoring record and finished 10th nationally in that category. In 2000, first-year starter Michael Bennett was the NCAA's third-leading rusher, but the team also had a school-record six 200-yard passing games.

In 2001 Anthony Davis was the nation's fifth-leading rusher and Big Ten Freshman of the Year, Lee Evans set the Big Ten record for receiving yards in a season (1,545) and quarterbacks Brooks Bollinger and Jim Sorgi each threw for more than 1,000 yards.

A year ago, Davis rushed for a UW sophomore-record 1,555 yards, while receivers Jonathan Orr and Brandon Williams were second-team freshman All-Americans by The Sporting News.

As backfield coach, White has helped the Badgers produce a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his eight seasons at the school. The UW has led the Big Ten in rushing three times (1996, 1998 and 1999) with White on staff.

White's star pupil, of course, is 1999 Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne. White was a driving force in Dayne's march toward the NCAA Division I-A career rushing mark.

One of college football's top recruiters, the personable White is credited with opening doors in Texas and California for the Badgers.

As a graduate assistant for Lou Holtz at Notre Dame, White helped tutor running backs (1988-89) and worked with Ricky Watters and Reggie Brooks.

The former Harvard quarterback (school's No. 2 career passer when he left) earned his B.A. in 1986, an M.A. from Fordham in 1988 and an M.B.A. from Notre Dame in 1990.

2003 Badgers

ITEMS OF INTEREST

- Wisconsin returns 16 starters on offense and defense, in addition to its punter, kickers and return specialists, from its 2002 Alamo Bowl championship team.
- Senior WR Lee Evans returns for his final year after sitting out last season with a knee injury. Evans set the Big Ten record for receiving yards in a season with 1,545 and was a Biletnikoff Award finalist as a junior in 2001.
- Junior RB Anthony Davis was the nation's leading rusher over the past two seasons combined with 3,021 yards. He was second in the Big Ten with 1,555 yards in 2002. He and Ron Dayne are the only two Badgers ever to rush for 1,000 yards in both their freshman and sophomore years. Davis has rushed for at least 100 yards in 17 of 24 career games.
- Wisconsin has had a 1,000-yard rusher for a Big Ten-record 10 straight seasons now. Only North Carolina (12 from 1973-84) and Southern California (10 from 1972-81) have equalled or bettered that streak.
- The Badgers are 7-1 in bowl games under head coach Barry Alvarez.
- Alvarez, starting his 14th season as head coach, was recently named to take over as Director of Athletics at Wisconsin starting in April of 2004. He will remain as football coach, as well.
- Wisconsin has had a finalist for one of college football's major awards in each of the past five seasons.
- The Badgers will have two new assistant coaches in the program in 2003. Ron Lee came from San Jose State to take over as Wisconsin's defensive backs coach. TE coach Rob Ianello, who was on the Badgers' staff in the early 1990s, comes back to Madison after a nine-year stint at Arizona.
- Senior QB Jim Sorgi will take over as the starter now that Brooks Bollinger is gone. Sorgi, despite just five career starts, ranks 14th on the all-time school list for passing yardage.
- Sorgi will be throwing to a talented group of receivers, including Lee Evans (school-record 2,255 receiving yards), Jonathan Orr (school freshman-record 842 receiving yards last season), Brandon Williams (663 receiving yards last season were second only to Orr's 842 yards in UW freshman history) and Darrin Charles (career highs of 25 catches and 323 yards in 2002).
- Wisconsin returns two of the top return specialists in the Big Ten in junior Jim Leonhard and sophomore Brandon Williams. Leonhard's 12.1 yards per punt return ranked No. 2 in the Big Ten in 2002 and his 434 punt return yards were a school record. Williams set school records for kickoff returns (32) and kickoff return yardage (670) last season as a true freshman.
- Junior Jim Leonhard led the nation in interceptions last season with a Big Ten record-tying 11. It was the most by a Big Ten player since 1951.
- Wisconsin won eight games in 2002 for the eighth time in the past 10 seasons. That is equal to the number of eight-win campaigns Wisconsin had from 1889-1992.
- Wisconsin's fabled Camp Randall Stadium is undergoing a renovation that will include increased seating capacity, suites, club seating, improved concessions areas and concourses, a new scoreboard and a new athletic department office building.
- Wisconsin sold 61,226 season tickets in 2002. That marked the sixth time in seven seasons that UW eclipsed the 60,000 mark for season tickets sold.

ALVAREZ SAYS ...

I like the way we ended last season, especially with so many young players contributing, and being key contributors. The last two games, and particularly the way we won the bowl game, are games we've used as a springboard into the 2003 season. I think that gave the players confidence and we hope to use that and ride it.

Our team is young, but experienced. We won't have many seniors on this team. It's nice to have Lee back. He will give us good leadership as well as another playmaker. We are so much more experienced than we were a year ago and I feel good about that.

OFFENSE

In our receivers we've got a big playmaker in Lee, and I think our younger players really improved as the season went on and made some plays in the bowl game. I expect them to take another step. We have one of the better running backs in the country in Anthony. I think Jim Sorgi is ready for a breakout year. He's had some outstanding games and now this is his team. He's concentrating on getting stronger and adding some bulk and he has accomplished that. He's a good leader and we're looking for him to have an outstanding year. Our biggest question mark is on the offensive line where we lose three outstanding seniors. We have some strength in the middle; both our guards have started for a couple years and I think Donovan Raiola has a chance to be a real solid center. Mike Lorenz has game experience, even though it was often at tight end last season. So, that gives us one position (left tackle) that is unknown and that was an emphasis for us in the spring. Overall, I feel we can be an explosive offense and have the potential to be outstanding.

DEFENSE

Defensively, there is no reason why we shouldn't take another huge step. We lose one guy up front. I think our defensive line has some depth; a lot of those guys have played and played effectively. I think Jeff Mack and Alex Lewis could be one of the better linebacking pairs we have had, plus I am looking for some of our young linebackers to take a step and give us some depth there. Our secondary returns three starters and guys who were very effective and with some young players being added to the mix I expect improvement back there. So I think defensively we can make a big jump.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Our kicking game still needs work, but I thought we were improved last year and all the guys are back. Our attitude was good, but we were sometimes inconsistent in the kicking game and that is something we emphasized in the spring with an eye toward making more improvements.

SEASON REVIEW

SEVERAL SIGNIFICANT ITEMS TO REMEMBER ABOUT THE 2002 SEASON:

1 The Badgers were 8-6 overall (2-6/8th in the Big Ten) and won the Alamo Bowl presented by MasterCard, 31-28 OT, over 14th-ranked Colorado.

2 Wisconsin improved to 7-1 in eight bowl appearances during the Alvarez era.

3 Wisconsin won eight games for the eighth time in the past 10 seasons. That is equal to the number of eight-win campaigns Wisconsin had from 1889-1992.

4 Four of Wisconsin's eight victories came after the Badgers trailed in the fourth quarter.

5 Wisconsin added to its Big Ten-record streak of 1,000-yard rushers. Anthony Davis compiled 1,555 yards on the ground to become the school's 10th straight 1,000-yard ground-gainer.

6 The Badgers finished the 2002 campaign with a turnover margin of +1.29 per game. That led the Big Ten and ranked ninth nationally. Wisconsin's 35 takeaways (led the Big Ten and ranked 12th nationally) were the most of the Alvarez era and the school's highest figure since gaining 35 in 1987.

7 Wisconsin was 4-0 in night games in 2002, improving its evening record during the Alvarez era to 15-4 (.789).

8 Wisconsin's schedule was rated by the NCAA as the 11th-toughest in the nation and second-toughest in the Big Ten.

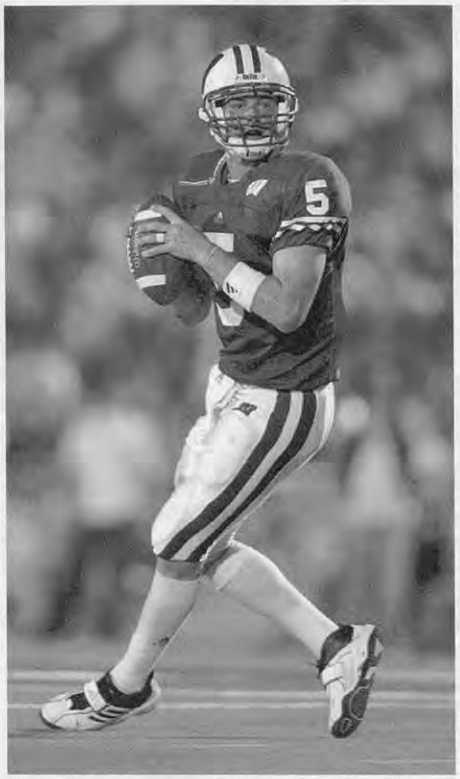
9 Two Badgers -- Jim Leonhard and Brandon Williams -- set school season return records in 2002. Leonhard's 434 punt return yards broke the old mark previously set by Nick Davis (427 yards in 1998). Williams' 670 kick return yards eclipsed the old record formerly held by Nate Odomes (616 yards in 1986).

10 Al Johnson was one of five finalists for the Dave Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center. Johnson's selection gave the Badgers a finalist for one of college football's major awards for the fifth consecutive season.

11 Wisconsin's starting lineup against Colorado (and for most of the season) consisted of just six seniors. That means the Badgers will return 16 starters for 2003.

12 Wisconsin played a school-record 14 games, including a school-high eight home games.

13 Wisconsin sold 61,226 season tickets for the 2002 campaign. It was the sixth time in the past eight years that UW eclipsed the 60,000 mark for season tickets sold.



Brooks Bollinger, who guided Wisconsin to nine fourth-quarter comeback wins during his career, finished with a UW-record 30 victories as a starter.

14 Wisconsin's top two receivers in 2002 were freshmen Jonathan Orr and Brandon Williams. Orr had 47 receptions for a school freshman record 842 yards and a UW rookie record-tying eight TDs. Williams, who caught a pass in all 14 games, made a school freshman record 52 catches for 663 yards (the second-highest freshman receiving yardage total in school history behind Orr's 842).

15 Jim Leonhard, a walk-on strong safety, led the nation in interceptions with a Big Ten record-tying 11. Leonhard earned first-team All-America honors from CNN/SI.com, second-team honors from Walter Camp and third-team acclaim from the Associated Press.

16 QB Brooks Bollinger finished his career with a school-record 30 wins as a starter. He became just the seventh QB in Big Ten history with 30 wins and the seventh player in Big Ten history with at least 20 rushing TDs and 30 passing TDs. He is ranked No. 2 on UW career lists for passing yards, attempts, completions and TDs.

MADISON — A total team effort allowed the Badgers to erase three different Fresno State leads and defeat the Bulldogs, 23-21, in the season-opener for both schools.

Game MVP Anthony Davis rushed for 184 yards, strong safety Jim Leonhard intercepted two passes, the Badger defense held the Bulldogs to 34 yards rushing and sophomore Mike Allen kicked three field goals, including the game-winning, 34-yarder with 2:05 left to play.

The Bulldogs, who rolled up 275 yards through the air, got on the board first when QB Jeff Grady hit All-American Bernard Berrian with a 22-yard touchdown pass with 4:29 left in the first quarter. Wisconsin's next drive stalled, but the Badgers' Jake Sprague recovered a fumble on the ensuing Bulldog possession, giving Wisconsin a first down at the Fresno State 1-yard line. Freshman Matt Bernstein scored his first career touchdown on the next play. Allen added his first field goal of the game with 4:02 left in the second quarter and the Badgers went to the half leading 10-7.

Grady opened the third-quarter scoring by putting the Bulldogs back ahead with an 8-yard touchdown pass to Adam Jennings. Wisconsin again responded, however, as Bernstein culminated a 12-play, 65-yard drive with his second touchdown of the game (this time a 3-yard run). Allen's second field goal gave the UW a 20-14 lead with 11:50 remaining to play in the game.

Grady's third touchdown strike of the game, a 23-yard pass to Alec Greco at 9:01, followed an Anthony Davis fumble and gave the Bulldogs a 21-20 edge. But Wisconsin's ensuing drive, a 13-play, 64-yard march that consumed 6:56, ended with Allen's game-winner.

Wisconsin dominated the game's ball possession (40:09-19:51), running 20 more plays than the Bulldogs.

LAS VEGAS — The Wisconsin defense forced five turnovers and the Badgers exploded for 24 second-quarter points in a 27-7 victory that ended prematurely with 7:41 left in the fourth quarter when a power outage in the area darkened the lights at Sam Boyd Stadium.

UNLV had taken over possession of the ball after a 42-yard field goal by Wisconsin's Scott Campbell had given the Badgers their 27-7 lead. A transformer went out in the area, causing a stoppage in the action. Game officials and coaches called the contest after several minutes as both teams waited on the field in the darkness.

Wisconsin opened the game by registering a turnover on each of UNLV's first three possessions, but the Badger offense had nothing to show for those efforts. Finally, after recovering a fumble at the Rebel 37-yard line, Brooks Bollinger hit Jonathan Orr with a 37-yard touchdown pass for a 7-0 lead. UNLV then fumbled at its own 9-yard line on its next possession and Bollinger connected moments later on an 8-yard touchdown pass to Bob Docherty.

Wisconsin added a 43-yard field goal from Mike Allen and a 2-yard touchdown run by Dwayne Smith for a 24-0 lead with 2:19 left in the first half. The Rebels got on the board just before the half when Joe Haro rushed 15 yards for a touchdown.

The teams settled into a defensive struggle for most of the second half, with Campbell's field goal accounting for the only second-half scoring.

Wisconsin outgained the Rebels 349-305, held a slight time of possession edge (27:00-25:19) and benefitted from the five UNLV turnovers as well as 11 Rebel penalties.

MADISON — Wisconsin exploded for 27 points in the second quarter and went on to a 34-17 victory over West Virginia at Camp Randall Stadium.

Quarterback Brooks Bollinger completed 14-20 passes for 218 yards and two touchdowns (both to freshman Jonathan Orr). True freshman receiver Brandon Williams made six catches for 125 yards. The Badgers also got rushing touchdowns from sophomore Anthony Davis and freshmen Dwayne Smith and Matt Bernstein.

Bollinger hit Orr with a 19-yard touchdown pass at 6:54 of the first quarter to give the UW a 7-0 edge.

After a 34-yard field goal by West Virginia's Todd James made it 7-3, the Badgers went on a roll, scoring four touchdowns in less than nine minutes during the second quarter. Smith scored from four yards out, Davis tallied his first touchdown of the season on a 6-yard run, Orr caught a 43-yard pass from Bollinger and Bernstein capped the first-half scoring with a 2-yard run that gave the Badgers a 34-3 lead at the half.

The Mountaineers got a 6-yard scoring run from Avon Cobourne early in the third quarter and a 1-yard touchdown run from Rasheed Marshall midway through the fourth quarter to account for the game's final points.

Wisconsin held a 447-399 advantage in total offense, including a 291-219 edge through the air. The Badgers also held a 32:37-27:23 time of possession edge and did not commit a turnover.

Brooks Bollinger

MADISON — Quarterback Brooks Bollinger capped a six-play, 50-yard drive by scoring on a 2-yard touchdown run that gave the Badgers a 24-21 victory over Northern Illinois.

Two fourth-quarter touchdowns had allowed the Huskies to erase a 17-9 deficit and go ahead, 21-17, with 5:55 remaining to play. Wisconsin got the ball back, but was forced to punt. Northern Illinois took over with 2:53 left and the chance to run out the clock, but the UW defense held, forcing the Huskies to punt and setting up the game-winning drive.

Northern Illinois, which held a commanding 455-275 advantage in total yards, went up 3-0 on a 34-yard field goal by Steve Azar midway through the first quarter. The Badgers responded with a 1-yard Bollinger touchdown run with 3:06 left in the first half. Azar and UW's Scott Campbell then traded late second-quarter field goals as Wisconsin went to the half with a 10-6 lead.

Azar added his third field goal of the game early in the third quarter, but Wisconsin's Anthony Davis registered a 9-yard touchdown run, giving the UW a 17-9 lead heading into the fourth quarter. Northern Illinois' Michael Turner, who rushed for 160 yards for the game, tallied on runs of 3 and 1 yard before Bollinger's late-game heroics.

Though outgained, Wisconsin's defense registered four turnovers and the Badgers held a slight time-of-possession edge. The UW was hurt, however, by 10 quarterback sacks.

Anthony Davis

MADISON — Wisconsin scored 24 unanswered points in the second quarter and shut down Arizona's high-powered offense in a 31-10 victory over the Wildcats before 78,582 fans at Camp Randall Stadium.

After a scoreless first quarter, sophomore Anthony Davis tallied on a 6-yard touchdown run that capped a seven-play, 74-yard drive at the 14:53 mark of the second quarter. Junior Alex Lewis then blocked a Wildcat punt on the visitors' ensuing possession, setting up another Davis touchdown run from three yards out with 13:45 left in the second frame. The Badgers then stopped Arizona again and senior Brooks Bollinger responded by directing Wisconsin on a 10-play, 96-yard scoring drive that culminated with a 17-yard touchdown pass to freshman Jonathan Orr with 4:03 remaining in the half. Scott Campbell's 32-yard field goal with 12 seconds left before the break put the UW ahead, 24-0.

Running back Clarence Farmer opened the second-half scoring with a 70-yard touchdown run that put the Wildcats on the board. But Bollinger brought the Badgers right back with a methodical 15-play, 80-yard scoring drive that ate up 8:36 and ended with the UW signal-caller tallying a on 1-yard touchdown run. Arizona's Sean Keel added a 27-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

Wisconsin dominated the game statistically with a 425-292 edge in total offense and a 33:54-26:06 advantage in time of possession. The UW limited the Wildcats, who had been averaging 411.5 yards per game through the air, to just 138 passing yards. The Badgers also intercepted a pair of passes, both by B.J. Tucker.

B.J. Tucker

MADISON — Penn State scored on five of its first seven possessions and held off a fourth-quarter Wisconsin rally in a 34-31 victory over the Badgers in front of 79,403 spectators at Camp Randall Stadium.

The Nittany Lions jumped out to a 10-0 lead after the first quarter on a 33-yard field goal by Robbie Gould and a 1-yard touchdown run by Zack Mills.

Wisconsin responded with a nine-play, 80-yard scoring drive that culminated with a 5-yard touchdown run by Brooks Bollinger. Following a 42-yard field goal by Gould, B.J. Tucker put the Badgers ahead 14-13 with a 65-yard interception return for a touchdown. But the Nittany Lions came right back, going 74 yards in just four plays as Larry Johnson tallied on a 24-yard touchdown run with 3:21 left in the first half.

Penn State increased its lead to 28-14 with 8:56 left in the third quarter when Sean McHugh scored on a 1-yard touchdown run. Bollinger, however, hit Brandon Williams with a 7-yard touchdown pass and Mike Allen booted a 48-yard field goal, cutting the Penn State lead to 28-23 with 13:05 left to play. The Badgers, however, never got closer than that. Gould added two more field goals before Bollinger hit Jonathan Orr on a 28-yard scoring strike that accounted for the final score with 1:17 left.

Penn State controlled much of the game, holding a 436-309 advantage in total yards and a 31:22-28:38 edge in time of possession. The Badgers ran a season-low 61 plays and rushed for only 92 yards, due partially to allowing eight quarterback sacks.

Mills and Bollinger both threw the ball well, with Bollinger completing 15-25 for 217 yards and two TDs, and Mills connecting on 21-37 for 287 yards. Each quarterback threw an interception. Penn State's Larry Johnson rushed for a game-high 111 yards.

BLOOMINGTON — Indiana erased a 19-point Wisconsin lead in the second half and went on to a 32-29 upset victory before a crowd of 31,156 at Memorial Stadium.

Hoosier quarterback Gibran Hamdan hit Glenn Johnson with a 20-yard touchdown pass with 2:16 left to play in the fourth quarter to put Indiana ahead to stay. The Hoosiers then stopped Wisconsin on its final drive.

Things started well for the Badgers who kicked off to begin the game and then recovered an Indiana fumble on the Hoosiers' 21-yard line on the first play of the game. UW's Mike Allen booted a 34-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. Indiana's Bryan Robertson tied the game at 3-3 with a 32-yard field goal with 4:45 left in the first quarter. Allen then added his second field goal of the quarter from 26 yards out for a 6-3 UW lead.

IU opened the second-quarter scoring when Hamdan hit Brian Lewis with a 4-yard scoring pass. But Allen's third field goal of the half (44 yards), followed by a 23-yard TD pass from Brooks Bollinger to Jonathan Orr, gave the UW a 16-10 edge at the half.

Wisconsin appeared to be in control after touchdown runs by Anthony Davis (eight yards) and Dwayne Smith (one yard) gave the Badgers a 29-10 lead with 9:34 left in the third quarter. Hamdan, however, hit Courtney Roby with a 31-yard TD pass just before the end of the third stanza, giving the Hoosiers life.

Following Smith's touchdown, the Badgers were forced to punt on their next three possessions, while Hamdan was guiding the Hoosiers to back-to-back, fourth-quarter scoring drives. The first was a 10-play, 74-yard march that ended with a 4-yard TD pass from Hamdan to Aaron Halterman. That was followed by the game-winning, 10-play, 76-yard drive that culminated in Hamdan's 20-yard scoring strike to Johnson.

Wisconsin rushed for 221 yards, including 108 on 18 carries for Davis, but was held to just 121 yards through the air.

MADISON — Ohio State's Craig Krenzel hit Ben Hartsock with a 3-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter and the No. 4 Buckeyes held on for a 19-14 victory in front of a season-high homecoming crowd of 79,729 at Camp Randall Stadium.

Quarterback Jim Sorgi, who took over for injured starter Brooks Bollinger in the second quarter, had given the Badgers a 14-13 lead with 1:55 left in the first half when he connected on a 42-yard scoring strike to Jonathan Orr.

The Buckeyes started strong, scoring first just 1:30 into the game on a Krenzel-to-Michael Jenkins 47-yard TD pass. Ohio State's opening drive consumed 75 yards in just three plays. Wisconsin, however, responded later in the first quarter with a three-play, 66-yard drive that ended with Anthony Davis' 41-yard touchdown run.

Ohio State's Mike Nugent added field goals of 27 and 25 yards late in the first quarter and early in the second to put the Buckeyes ahead 13-7. Sorgi and Orr then hooked up for their TD strike, giving the Badgers their only lead at 14-13 at the half.

Wisconsin's defense kept the Buckeyes off the board for more than two quarters before Hartsock's game-winning score with 9:59 remaining to play. The Badgers had a pair of fourth-quarter possessions, but failed to score.

Wisconsin outrushed the Buckeyes, led by Davis' 144-yard effort. Ohio State, however, outgained the Badgers 382-340, held a 32:17-27:43 advantage in time of possession and won the turnover battle, 2-0.

EAST LANSING — Wisconsin rushed for a then-season-high 313 yards and raced out to a 21-0 lead after one quarter in a 42-24 victory in front of 74,507 fans at Spartan Stadium.

Quarterback Brooks Bollinger rushed for touchdowns of 1 and 7 yards and threw a 3-yard TD strike to Mark Bell to put the Badgers ahead 21-0 after the first stanza.

A Dave Rayner 36-yard field goal got the Spartans on the board early in the second quarter, but Bollinger connected on a 9-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Williams with five seconds left in the first half to give Wisconsin a commanding 28-3 lead at the break.

Michigan State started the second-half scoring when QB Damon Dowdell hit B.J. Lovett with a 7-yard TD pass at the 9:13 mark, but the Badgers responded immediately with a five-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 33-yard touchdown run by freshman Dwayne Smith. Dowdell ended the third quarter by connecting with Charles Rogers on a 26-yard touchdown pass to pull MSU within 35-17.

The Badgers put the game out of reach for good when Bollinger fired his third TD pass of the night, hitting Jonathan Orr with a 23-yard aerial that made it 42-17. Aaron Alexander hooked up with Rogers on a 44-yard TD pass that ended the scoring with 5:23 remaining.

Wisconsin held a 33:44-26:06 edge in time of possession, while outrushing the Spartans 313-159. The UW helped its cause by forcing three Michigan State turnovers. The Spartans also took 10 penalties for 96 yards.

IOWA CITY — Wisconsin was limited to a season-low 215 yards in total offense in a 20-3 loss at ninth-ranked Iowa before a sellout crowd of 70,397 at Kinnick Stadium.

After a scoreless first quarter, the two teams traded second-quarter field goals. Iowa went ahead 3-0 on Nate Kaeding's 32-yarder before the Badgers tied it at 3-3 on a 26-yard conversion by Mike Allen. The Hawkeyes, however, used a 21-yard touchdown pass from Brad Banks to Maurice Brown with 1:03 left in the first half to go ahead for good.

Iowa added to its lead with a pair of third-quarter scores. Kaeding's second field goal of the game, a 30-yarder, came with 10:05 remaining in the third stanza. Banks hooked up with tight end Dallas Clark on a 23-yard TD pass with 6:25 left in the third quarter to account for the final score.

The Hawkeyes shut down the Wisconsin running game, holding the Badgers to a season-low 78 yards on the ground. UW's Anthony Davis went over the 1,000-yard mark for the season, but gained a career-low 34 yards in the process. Wisconsin completed just 11-30 passes for 137 yards, no touchdowns and two interceptions.

Banks completed 17-30 passes for 275 yards and a pair of TDs. Brown caught six passes for 107 yards and one touchdown. Iowa did not commit a turnover and held a 32:35-27:25 advantage in time of possession.

MADISON — Illinois rolled up 504 yards in total offense and the Badgers allowed a season-high 37 points in a 37-20 loss in front of 78,709 fans at Camp Randall Stadium.

Illini quarterback Jon Beutjer completed 22-34 passes for 319 yards and four touchdowns. He was intercepted three times. Illinois also rushed for 185 yards, including 158 from Antoineo Harris.

Illinois got on the board quickly as John Gockman booted a 46-yard field goal with 12:01 remaining in the first quarter. Wisconsin's Mike Allen kicked the first of two field goals, a 20-yarder, to pull the Badgers even at 3-3, but Beutjer hit Greg Lewis with a 36-yard touchdown pass for a 10-3 Illini lead after one stanza.

Beutjer and Lewis hooked up again on a 7-yard TD pass just 49 seconds into the second quarter to give the Illini a 17-3 edge. The Badgers rebounded, however, and Dwayne Smith scored the first of two touchdowns in the game from six yards out. Allen then converted on his second field goal of the game, this time from 44 yards away. But Beutjer hit Walter Young with a 22-yard scoring strike with only 28 seconds left in the first half to give the Illini a commanding 24-13 lead at halftime.

Smith's 1-yard TD run opened the second-half scoring and pulled the UW within 24-20 with 9:26 left in the third quarter, but that was all the scoring Wisconsin would do for the day. Illinois sandwiched a pair of field goals (one by Peter Christofilakos and the other by Gockman) around Beutjer's fourth TD pass (a 12-yarder to Josh Davis).

Wisconsin got a 122-yard performance from Smith and its defense registered a season high-tying five takeaways (including two interceptions by Jim Leonhard). The Badgers, however, were 2-13 on third down and registered a season-low 13 first downs.

ANN ARBOR — John Navarre's 8-yard touchdown pass to Braylon Edwards with 2:15 left in the third quarter broke a 14-14 tie and proved to be the winning tally in Michigan's 21-14 victory over Wisconsin in front of 110,412 fans at Michigan Stadium.

The Wolverines went ahead less than five minutes into the game. Michigan took the opening kickoff and marched 75 yards in five plays as B.J. Askew capped the two-minute, 46-second drive with a 27-yard touchdown run. Wisconsin's Anthony Davis fumbled on the first play of the Badgers' first possession and the Wolverines converted that that into an 11-yard touchdown run by Chris Perry with only 4:19 having been run off the clock.

Wisconsin, however, got a big play late in the first quarter when Jim Leonhard returned a punt 39 yards for a touchdown with 1:27 left. That cut the Michigan lead to 14-7 and gave the Badgers momentum. With Wisconsin's defense stiffening in the second quarter, the Badgers used a six-play, 54-yard drive that culminated in a 2-yard touchdown run by Anthony Davis for a 14-14 lead at the break.

But the Badgers did not score again, despite three takeaways on defense. Michigan put together a 16-play, 78-yard drive that consumed 8:43 and ended with Edwards' winning TD reception.

The Badgers won the turnover battle and had a greater time of possession, but gained just 255 yards in total offense. Michigan, on the other hand, accumulated 352 yards in total offense and converted 50 percent (7-14) of its third-down attempts.

MADISON — Anthony Davis racked up 301 yards and a school record-tying five touchdowns on 45 carries as Wisconsin defeated Big Ten rival Minnesota 49-31 to become bowl eligible and regain Paul Bunyan's Axe.

Fellow sophomore Jim Leonhard picked off two Asad Abdul-Khaliq passes late in the game to seal the victory. The two interceptions for Leonhard gave him 10 on the season, a school record.

Brooks Bollinger, playing in his last game at Camp Randall, produced his eighth career fourth quarter comeback by leading the Badgers to three touchdowns in the final frame. Bollinger scored the eventual game-winner with 10:21 remaining in the game on a quarterback sneak, his seventh rushing touchdown of the season. It capped a 112-yard rushing effort for Bollinger, his fourth career 100-yard game.

Wisconsin took a 21-14 lead into halftime after Davis scored his first touchdown on fourth and goal with only three seconds remaining. Minnesota came out strong in the second and took a 31-28 lead early in the final quarter. Bollinger's touchdown put UW up 35-31 and two late Davis touchdown runs and Leonhard's two picks ensured victory.

In addition to setting the school record for interceptions, Leonhard also broke the school mark for punt return yardage in a season, eclipsing Nick Davis' 427 yards in 1998.

The Badgers rushed for a season-high 416 yards and had 550 yards in total offense. Davis' five touchdown runs matched Billy Marek's total against Minnesota in 1974 and his 301 yards was the third-most by a Badger in school history. Wisconsin's 49 points against the Gophers also marked the most points scored by the Badgers since a 59-0 win over Indiana Oct. 16, 1999.

SAN ANTONIO — Wisconsin continued its remarkable run of success in bowl games, stunning 14th-ranked Colorado with a come-from-behind 31-28 overtime victory in the Alamo Bowl presented by MasterCard at the Alamodome.

Mike Allen booted a 37-yard field goal on Wisconsin's first possession of overtime to give the UW the victory. Colorado's Pat Brougham had missed a 45-yard field goal attempt on the Buffaloes' first OT possession.

Brooks Bollinger drove the Badgers 80 yards in 10 plays and capped the march with a 1-yard touchdown run with 51 seconds left in regulation to send the game to overtime. During the final regulation drive, the Badgers converted twice on fourth down.

Colorado's Don Strickland intercepted a Bollinger pass and returned it 91 yards for a touchdown to give the Buffs a 7-0 lead less than four minutes into the game. A 4-yard touchdown run by Anthony Davis tied it at 7-7 six minutes later, but CU regained the edge on a 10-yard scoring strike from Robert Hodge to D.J. Hackett as time ran out on the first quarter.

The Badgers scored twice in the second frame, with Bollinger connecting on TD strikes to Brandon Williams (10 yards) and Darrin Charles (7 yards) for a 21-14 halftime lead. Colorado took the lead back in the third quarter on a 4-yard touchdown run by Chris Brown and an 11-yard TD pass from Zac Colvin to Hackett. There was no more scoring until Bollinger's 1-yard run sent the game into overtime.

Wisconsin overcame four turnovers by limiting the high-powered Colorado running game to just 123 yards rushing and 200 yards in total offense. Buffs running back Chris Brown, the nation's third-leading rusher, was held to 97 yards on 28 carries.

The Badgers accumulated 356 yards of total offense, including 99 yards rushing from Davis and 82 on the ground from Bollinger. Bollinger was 12-24 passing for 163 yards and two scores.

CAMP RANDALL STADIUM FACADE

33 DAYNE

Dayne and Ameche honored at Camp Randall Stadium

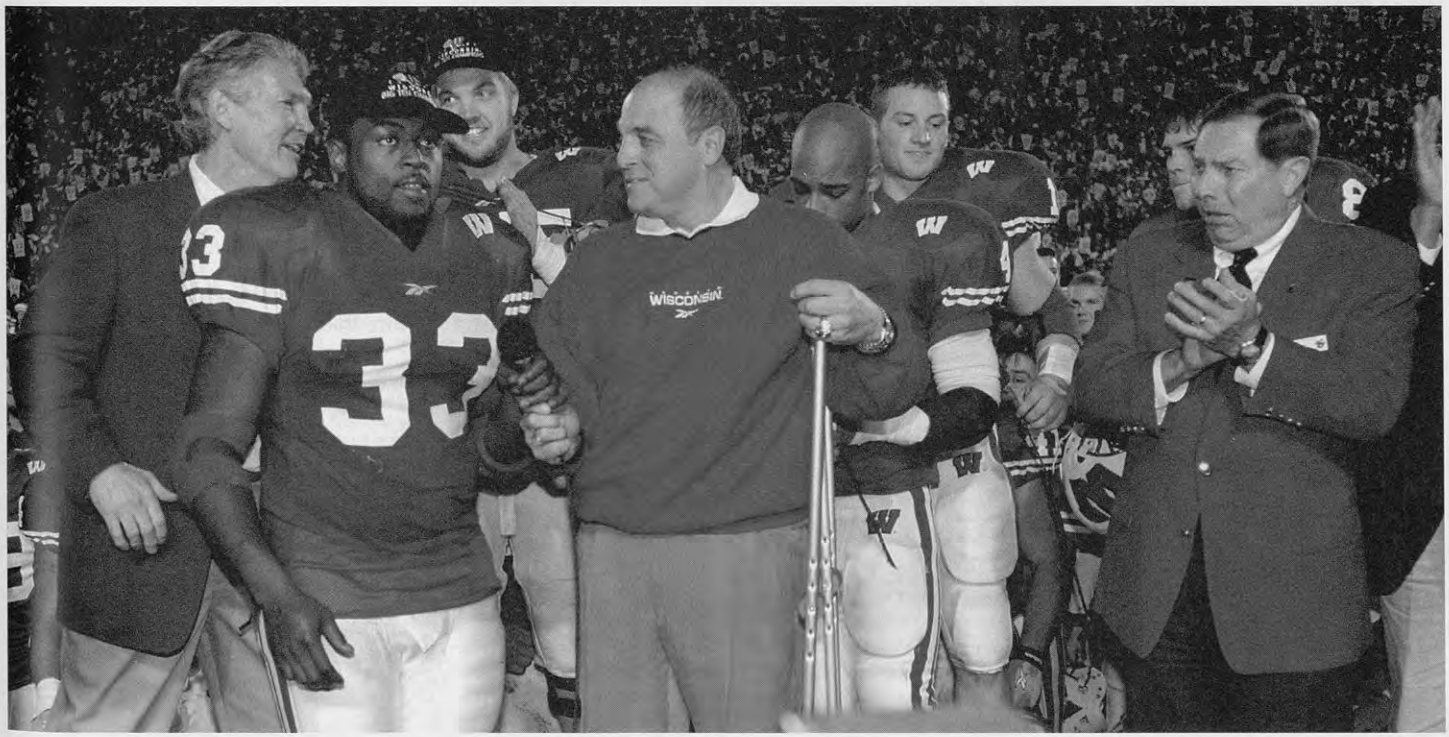
The University of Wisconsin began a tradition in 1999 to honor outstanding achievement in Badger football history. The school has displayed the names of two of its greatest gridiron heroes — Ron Dayne and Alan Ameche — on the facade of the second deck at Camp Randall Stadium.

The tradition began during a special post-game ceremony on Nov. 13, 1999, when the Department of Athletics saluted the accomplishments of Dayne by putting his name on the upper deck facade. It was Dayne's last game in Camp Randall Stadium, a contest in which he became college football's all-time rushing leader.

Ameche became the second Badger honored when his name was added to the facade prior to the Badgers' game vs. Oregon on Sept. 9, 2000. The Kenosha, Wis., native was represented by his widow and son at the ceremony.

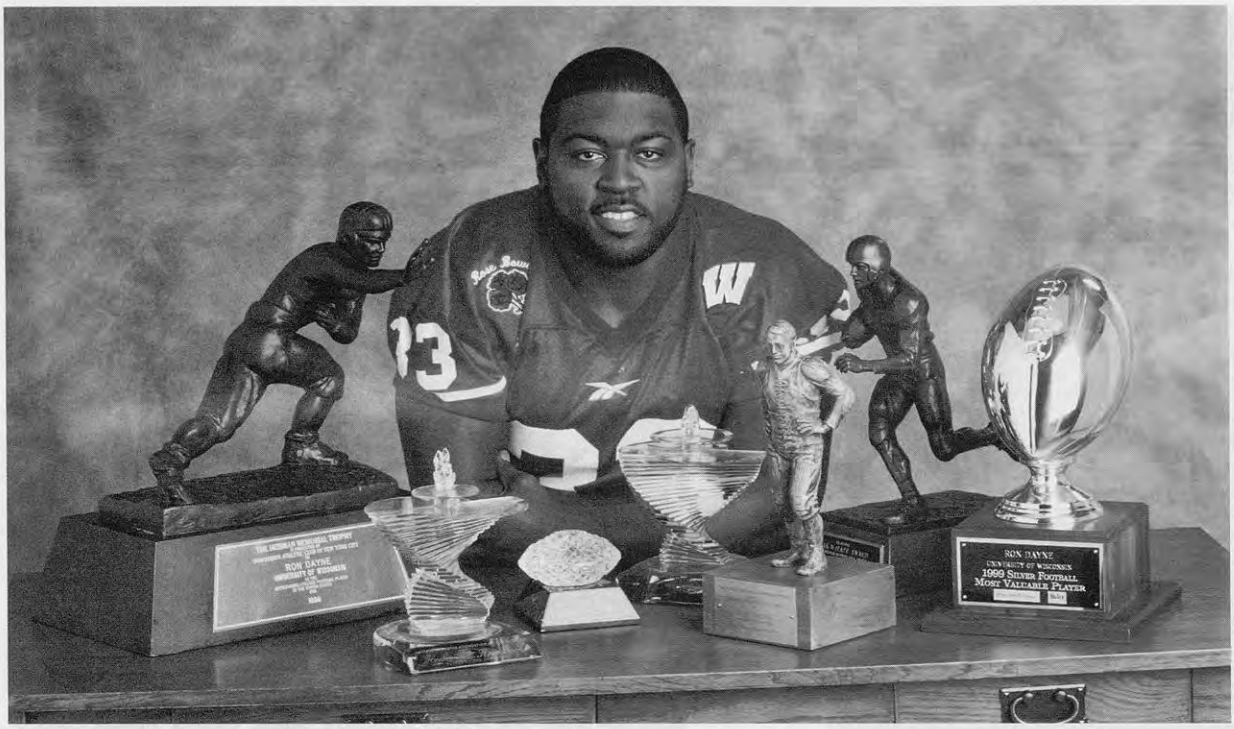
Additional names will be added to the facade as warranted.

(pictured from right): Alan Ameche's widow Yvonne, former teammate Jim Hammond, UW Director of Athletics Pat Richter and Ameche's son Brian honor the former Heisman Trophy winner during a pre-game ceremony vs. Oregon in 2000. Ameche's name was added to the facade (joining Ron Dayne) on the second deck at Camp Randall Stadium.



Ron Dayne prepares to address the Camp Randall Stadium crowd after seeing his name and number revealed on the stadium's facade following the Badgers' 41-3 victory over Iowa on Nov. 13, 1999. Dayne became Division I college football's career rushing leader that afternoon.

WISCONSIN'S RON DAYNE



Ron Dayne is the most decorated player in Wisconsin football history. He capped his remarkable career by winning the 1999 Heisman Trophy, as well as the Maxwell and Doak Walker Awards. Dayne became Division I football's career rushing leader in his final regular-season contest as a Badger.

Honors, awards and records were never the focus of Ron Dayne's career. "I just tried to do what I could to help the team win," is what the soft-spoken tailback repeated many times throughout his career. Helping the Badgers win may be Dayne's favorite personal legacy, but other witnesses to his career will forever marvel at his on-field accomplishments. Here's a look at some of his achievements:

- college football's most-decorated player after winning the 1999 Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Doak Walker Awards.
- national player of the year by Associated Press, Football News, The Sporting News and Walter Camp.
- first player in college history to run for more than 7,000 career yards (bowl play included).
- college football's all-time leading rusher with 6,397 yards (no bowls). He bettered the old mark of 6,279 on a 31-yard run in his last game (vs. Iowa).
- three-time bowl game MVP (1996 Copper, 1999 Rose and 2000 Rose).
- first three-time Big Ten rushing champion.
- second nationally in rushing (by only 16 yards) as a senior despite sitting out six full quarters in large-margin wins.
- tied NCAA record for career 200-yard games (bowls not included) when he gained 216 yards vs. Iowa. Dayne, along with Marcus Allen (USC) and Ricky Williams (Texas), had 11 such games.
- Big Ten career leader in rushing and scoring.
- an average of 148.8 yards rushing per game (career) ranks fifth all-time in the NCAA.
- Big Ten offensive P.O.W. four times in 1999 (equalled the conference record).
- only player to lead the Big Ten in three categories (rushing, all-purpose yardage and scoring) during the 1999 season.
- recorded five games of at least 200 yards rushing in 1999, a national-best figure.
- had his name and number unveiled on the facade of Camp Randall Stadium after the Iowa game on Nov. 13, 1999.
- personally outrushed the opposing team 29 times in 43 career starts.
- joined Amos Lawrence (North Carolina), Tony Dorsett (Pitt) and Denvis Manns (New Mexico State) as the only players in history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in four consecutive years.
- recorded 2,000-yard seasons as both a freshman and senior (counting bowl games).
- gained just over 50 percent of his career yardage after contact.
- landslide winner in the Heisman Trophy balloting. His 2,042 votes were the 10th-most of all time.
- honored with "Ron Dayne Days" as proclaimed by Governor Tommy Thompson, Madison Mayor Sue Bauman and Milwaukee Mayor John Norquist.

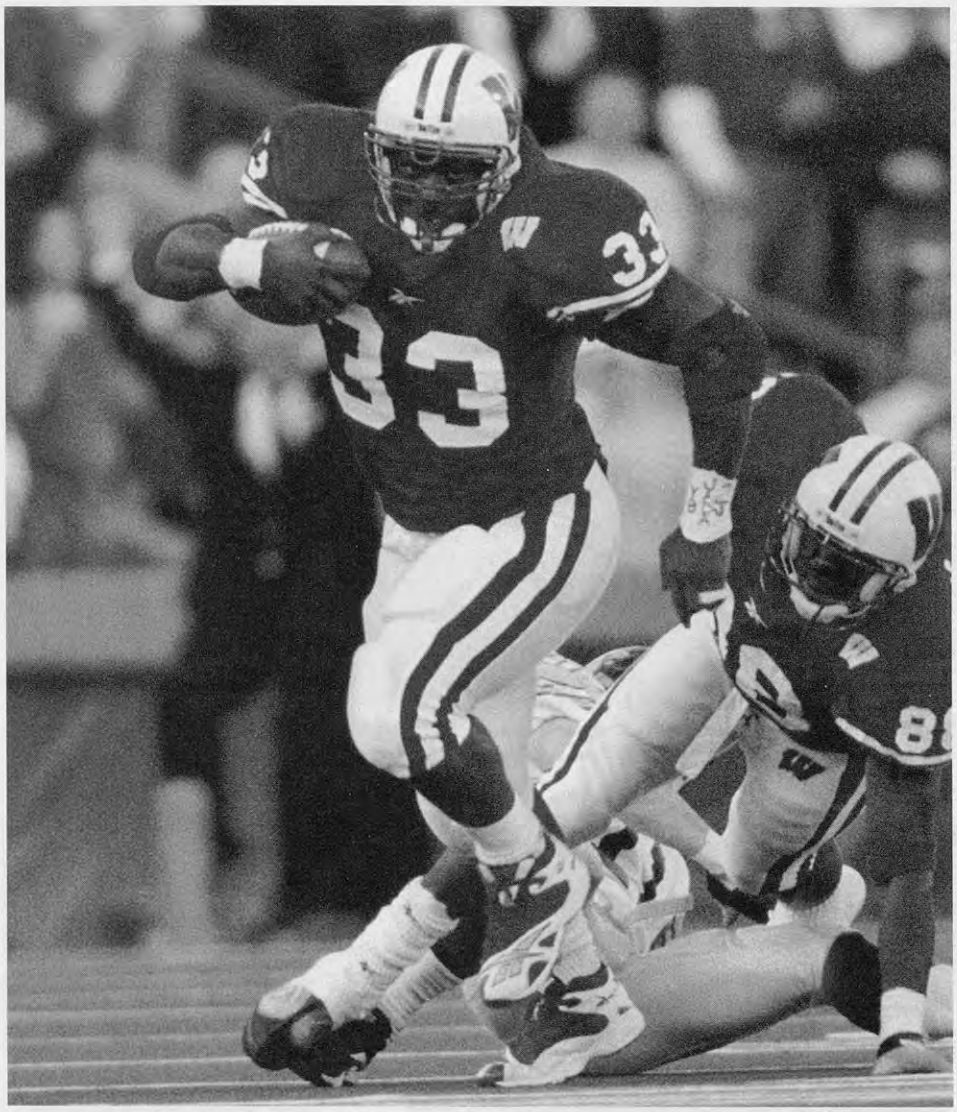
WHAT THEY SAID

Barry Alvarez, UW Head Coach:
"Ron really exemplified our program. I don't think there's a player that has ever meant more to a program. He's what our program is all about ... blue-collar, tough, hard-nosed. He doesn't do it the easy way, but he does what you have to do for wins."

Brian White, UW Assistant Coach:
"What will stick with me the longest is the smile he gives when talking about his daughter. That's when I knew what a special young man I was coaching. The fact that, at 19 years old, he didn't shirk the responsibility of fatherhood. He embraced it."

ABC's Tim Brandt:
(on Dayne's carry when he became college football's career rushing leader): "Open up the record books for Ron Dayne. He is the man of few words and many yards."



Ron Dayne (top) became college football's career rushing leader on this 31-yard carry vs. Iowa in 1999. Dayne (above left) gives his Heisman Trophy acceptance speech. Thousands of Badger fans (above right) hold up commemorative #33 towels during Dayne's last home game.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

1896 Western Conference Champions

After opening the season with seven victories, the Badgers tied Northwestern 6-6 and lost to the Carlisle Indians. Despite the late-season swoon, the Badgers claimed the inaugural Western Conference title. The Badgers' tough defense registered shutouts in six of its seven victories. The loss to the Carlisle Indians was the first night game in school history (played indoors at the Chicago Coliseum).

1897 Western Conference Champions

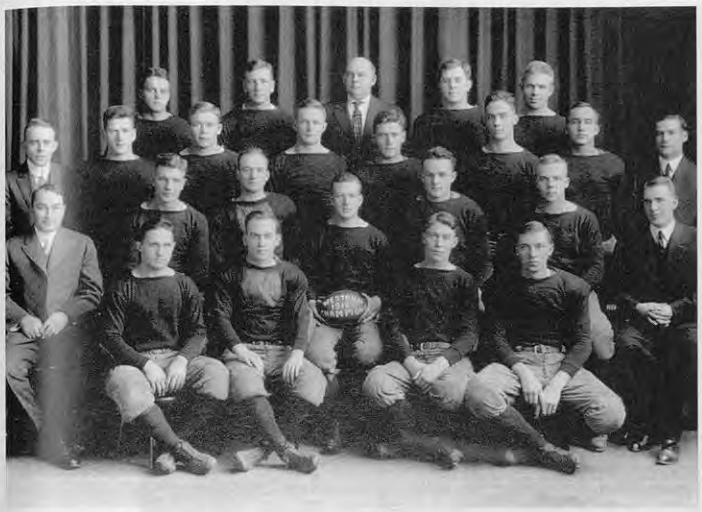
Wisconsin won its second straight conference title and registered eight shutouts on the way to a 9-1 mark. The only loss was a 6-0 decision to the UW Alumni. Victories over Minnesota, Chicago and Northwestern propelled the Badgers to the Western Conference title. Australian kicker Pat O'Dea, the famed "Kangaroo Kicker," booted 14 field goals. It was the second league title for Coach Phil King.

1901 Western Conference Champions

Phil King's Badgers won nine straight games to become the first undefeated team in school history. Using a potent offense and stingy defense, Wisconsin defeated every opponent by at least three TDs and recorded eight shutouts. The Badgers outscored the opposition 317-5. Wisconsin's slate included two wins over high school teams and conference wins over Chicago and Minnesota.

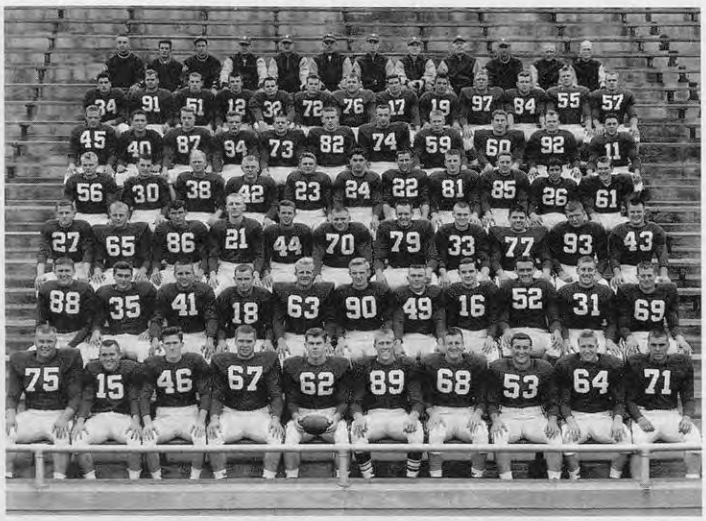
1906 Western Conference Champions

Although traditional league powers Minnesota, Michigan and Chicago were missing from the schedule due to a faculty reform movement, Wisconsin claimed a share of the conference championship with the Gophers. Coach Dr. C.P. Hutchins' team posted Western Conference wins over Iowa, Illinois and Purdue by a combined score of 63-15.



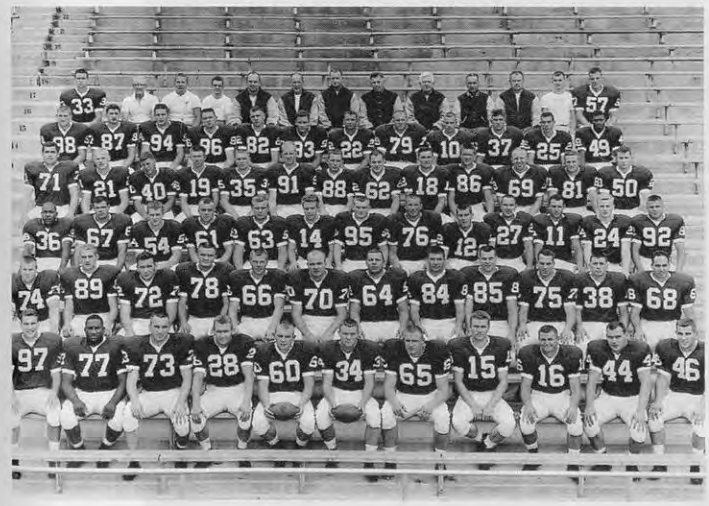
1912 Western Conference Champions

The Badgers ended their third undefeated (7-0) season with a 28-10 win at Iowa. Coach William Juneau's squad was the last Badger team to post a perfect record. Led by consensus All-America tackle Robert "Butts" Butler, the Badgers placed a school-record nine players on the All-Western Conference team. Wisconsin registered four shutouts and allowed only 29 points all year.



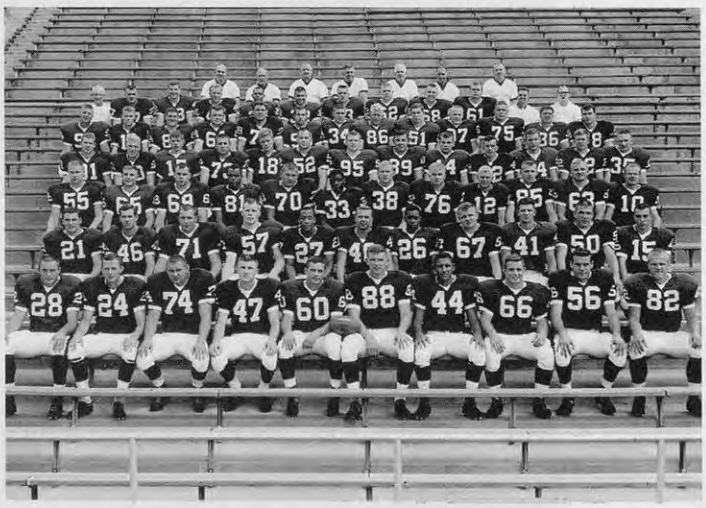
1952 Big Ten Conference Champions

Following a 20-6 win over Illinois in the second game of the season, Wisconsin sat atop the polls as the nation's No. 1 team. The Badgers lost the following week, but went on to a 6-3-1 record and the school's first Rose Bowl appearance. After losing to USC 7-0 in Pasadena, the Badgers ended the season ranked 10th by United Press International and 11th by Associated Press.



1959 Big Ten Conference Champions

Needing a victory in the regular-season finale to clinch a league title, Wisconsin beat Minnesota 11-7. It was the Badgers' first undisputed title since 1912. At the Rose Bowl, Washington scored 17 points in the first quarter on the way to a 44-8 win. All-Big Ten QB Dale Hackbart and All-Big Ten guard Jerry Stalcup were stars on a club that finished the season ranked sixth by AP and UPI.

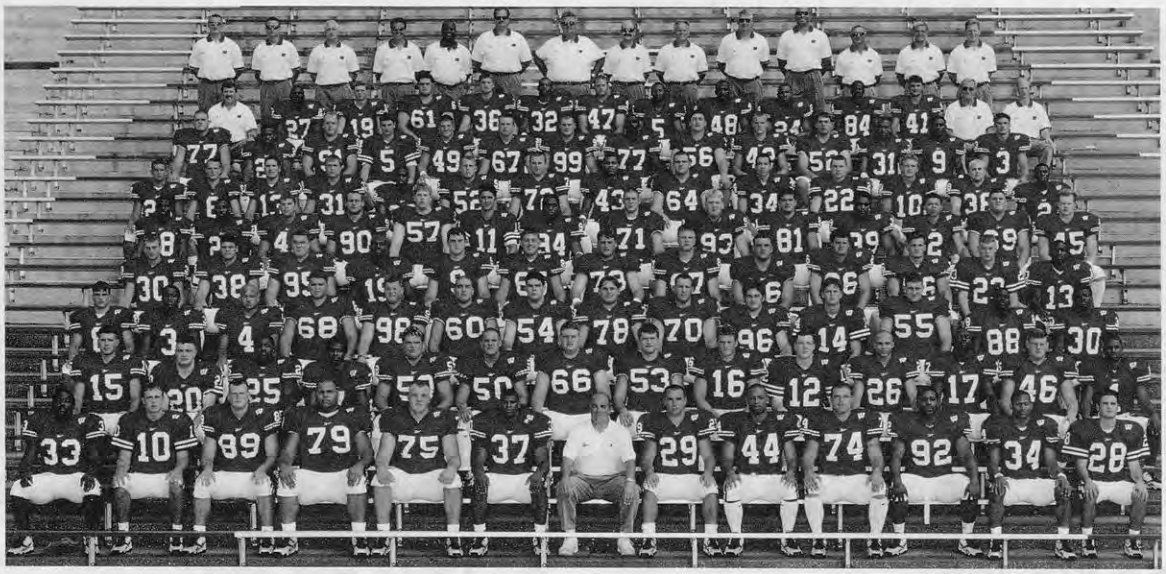


1962 Big Ten Conference Champions

Although USC defeated Wisconsin 42-37 in perhaps the most exciting Rose Bowl ever, the Badgers finished the storybook campaign with an 8-1 record and ranked second nationally in both the AP and UPI polls. Ron Vander Kelen set a Rose Bowl record with 401 yards passing as the UW scored 23 straight points in a fourth-quarter rally. Pat Richter was a consensus All-American after catching 49 passes.

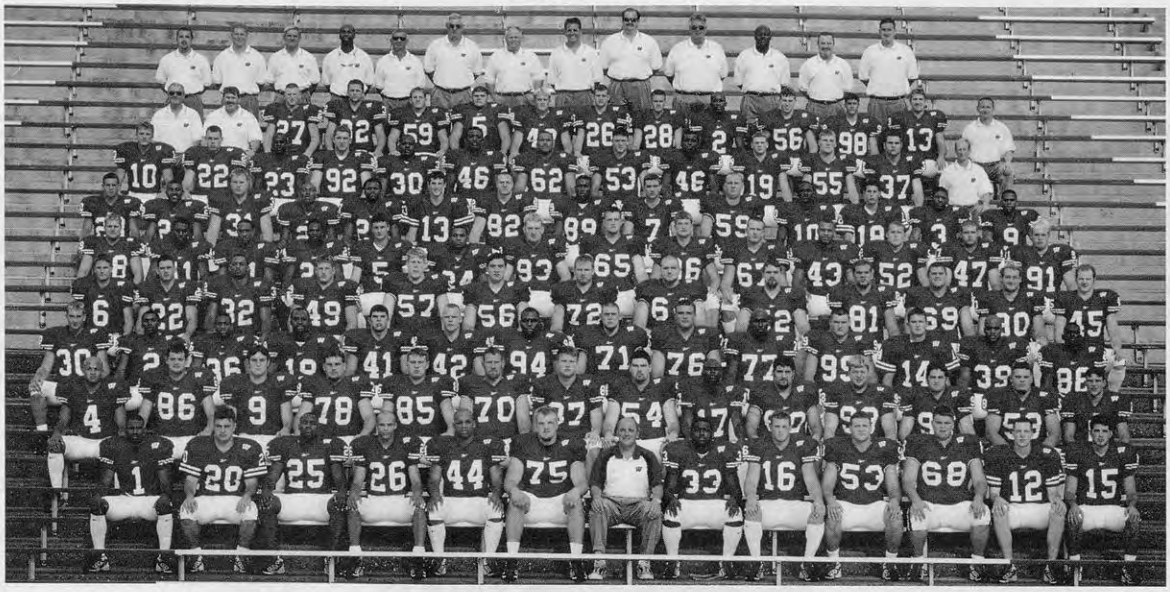
1993 Big Ten Conference Champions

The 1993 Badgers established a new standard of excellence, shattering school records and earning numerous honors. After claiming Wisconsin's first Big Ten title in 32 years (a co-championship with Ohio State), the Badgers defeated UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. The 10-1-1 club set a Wisconsin record for wins and boasted eight first-team All-Big Ten players, including Big Ten and Rose Bowl MVP Brent Moss. Wisconsin ended the season ranked fifth and sixth by the coaches (CNN/USA Today) and media (Associated Press), respectively.



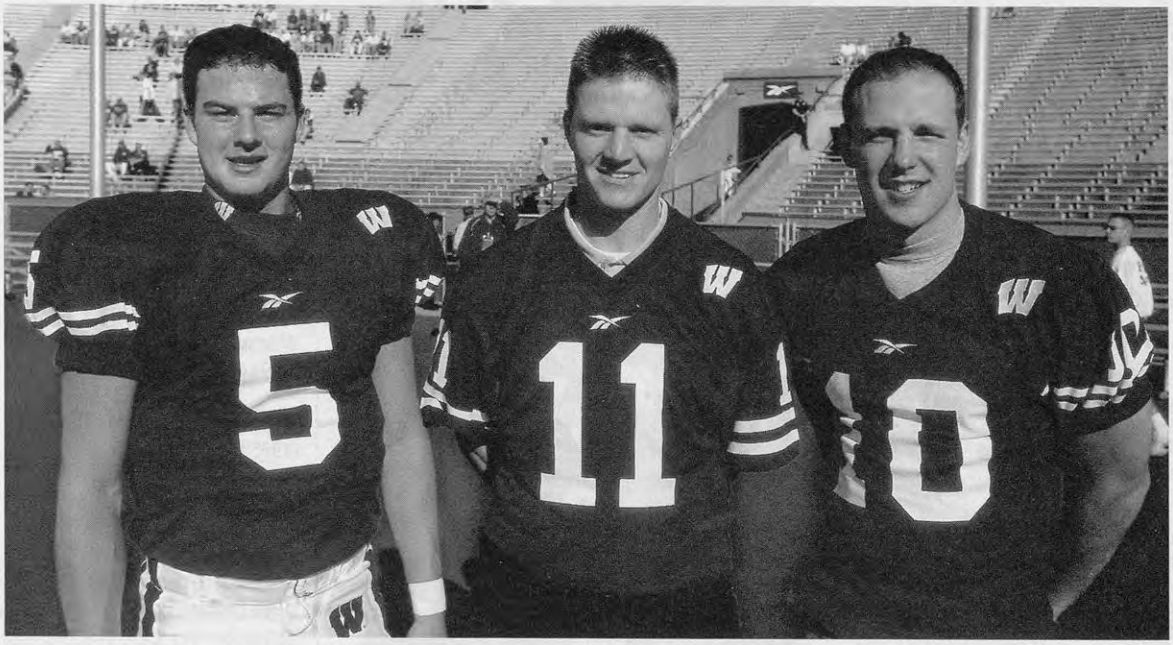
1998 Big Ten Conference Champions

The 1998 Badgers concluded the winningest campaign in school history with a 38-31 Rose Bowl victory over sixth-ranked UCLA. The 1998 club opened the season with a nine-game winning streak and registered the best winning percentage (.916, 11-1) in the modern era at the UW. Aaron Gibson was a finalist for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy and Ron Dayne was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. Tom Burke led the nation in sacks and Jamar Fletcher topped the NCAA in interceptions. Wisconsin was first nationally in turnover margin and scoring defense.



1999 Big Ten Conference Champions

The 1999 Badgers ended the season with an eight-game winning streak after splitting their opening four contests. A 17-9 win over Stanford in the Rose Bowl allowed UW to become the first Big Ten school in history to win consecutive games in "The Granddaddy of them all." Wisconsin won its first undisputed Big Ten championship since 1962 and finished fourth in each of the final national polls. Ron Dayne was the consensus national player of the year and won the Heisman Trophy. Chris McIntosh and Jamar Fletcher joined Dayne as first-team All-Americans.



These Signalcallers Won In Pasadena

These three Badger quarterbacks — (from left) Brooks Bollinger (5), Darrell Bevell (11) and Mike Samuel (10) — are the only ones in school history to lead Wisconsin to a victory in the Rose Bowl.

BADGER BOWL GAMES

1953 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — USC scored the game's only points on a 22-yard pass from Rudy Bukich to Al Carmichael in the Trojans' 7-0 win over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

The Badgers dominated the game from a statistical standpoint, outgaining USC by 120 yards. Led by Alan Ameche's 133 yards rushing, Wisconsin had a 211-48 advantage on the ground. However, both defenses rose to the occasion when necessary.

One of Wisconsin's best scoring chances came in the opening minutes of the third quarter. Ameche broke loose for a 54-yard run as the Badgers got to the USC 21-yard line. On third down, Archie Ray Burks fumbled on an end run and USC recovered.

The Trojans then put together the game-winning drive (73 yards), which ended with Bukich's TD pass. Wisconsin countered with a 13-play, 84-yard drive that ended at the Trojan two-yard line when Jerry Witt was stopped a yard short of a first down on a fake field goal play.

Coach Ivy Williamson's club was the first in Badger history to play in a bowl game.

1960 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — Washington scored the game's first 17 points en route to a 44-8 Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin.

Washington tallied the first TD on a 6-yard run by Don McKeta 10 minutes into the game. George Fleming booted a 26-yard field goal after the Huskies recovered one of four Wisconsin fumbles. Fleming then returned a punt 53 yards for a score on the final play of the period for a 17-0 Husky lead.

Badger fullback Tom Wiesner tallied Wisconsin's only points on a four-yard run with 5:27 left in the opening half. Dale Hackbart connected with Al Schoonover for a two-point conversion that cut the lead to 17-8.

Washington quarterback Bob Schloredt, who shared game MVP honors with Fleming, tossed a 23-yard TD pass to close the first-half scoring. Schloredt completed four passes for 102 yards and rushed for 81 yards.

Wisconsin mounted a challenge in the third quarter, but four plays inside the Husky 10-yard line failed. The Badger defense entered the bowl with a defensive average of barely 10 points allowed per game for the regular season.

1963 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — A 23-point fourth quarter explosion wasn't quite enough as the Badgers dropped a 42-37 Rose Bowl encounter to USC. The Trojans had claimed a 42-14 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter before the Badger rally.

USC had a 21-7 halftime lead and extended it on the first play of the third stanza, before Ron Vander Kelen led one of the biggest charges in bowl history.

Vander Kelen reached paydirt on a 17-yard scamper to reduce the margin to 28-14. USC responded with a pair of touchdown passes by Pete Beathard and the Trojans led 42-14.

Lou Holland (13-yard run) and Gary Kroner (four-yard reception) tallied for the Badgers within three minutes. A bad snap on a punt resulted in a UW safety. After the free kick, Vander Kelen hit three straight passes, including a 19-yard score to Pat Richter for the final 42-37 margin.

Vander Kelen, the game MVP, set both school and Rose Bowl records with 401 yards passing. Richter caught 11 of those aerials for 163 yards. The 79 total points scored was a Rose Bowl record that stood for 28 years.

1981 Garden State

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Tennessee scored 18 straight points in the first half and held on to defeat Wisconsin 28-21 in the Garden State Bowl.

The Badger defense limited UT to 89 yards rushing, but Volunteer QB Steve Alatorre unleashed a potent passing attack. Alatorre threw for 315 yards. WR Anthony Hancock caught 11 passes for 196 yards.

After Fuad Reveiz booted a field goal in the first quarter, Wisconsin assumed its only lead of the game on a three-yard run by Jess Cole. Willie Gault returned the ensuing kickoff 87 yards to give Tennessee a lead it never lost. Reserve quarterback Randy Wright came off the bench to throw a pair of second-half touchdown passes for the Badgers. Wright hit Jeff Nault and Thad McFadden on scoring tosses in the final period.

The game featured two high-powered offenses that combined for 49 points, 793 total yards and 49 first downs.

Wisconsin's fourth bowl in school history and first non-Rose Bowl drew a crowd of 53,220.

1982 Independence

SHREVEPORT, La. — Wisconsin won its first bowl game with a 14-3 decision over Kansas State in the Independence Bowl.

Randy Wright threw a game-record two TD passes and the Badger defense set a scoring record before 24,684 fans. The anticipated crowd was more than 49,000, but a 23-mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 degrees below zero.

Wright, the game's offensive MVP, completed nine of 24 throws. However, his 87-yard pass play to Tim Stracka was the longest in UW and Independence Bowl history. The Wisconsin defense limited Kansas State to 192 total yards in the Wildcats' first-ever postseason appearance.

KSU had taken a 3-0 lead on Steve Willis' 29-yard field goal before the Badgers scored 14 straight points. Tim Krumrie was the game defensive MVP. He helped limit the Kansas State running attack to less than two yards per carry.

Game totals showed five turnovers, 14 punts, 22 completions in 59 attempts (.372) and 14 penalties.

1984 Hall of Fame

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A fumbled snap on a 26-yard game-winning field goal attempt was the deciding play in Wisconsin's 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Trailing by a point after the Wildcats' Joe Worley booted a 52-yard field goal with eight minutes left, the Badgers drove inside Kentucky's 20-yard line. Todd Gregoire's field goal with 1:55 left never materialized after holder Bob Kobza dropped the center snap. Gregoire, a freshman, had tied a school record with four field goals earlier in the game.

Wisconsin assumed a 13-0 lead on a pair of Gregoire three pointers and a three-yard TD pass from Mike Howard to Thad McFadden. The Badgers outgained their SEC foe both on the ground and through the air.

However, UW was assessed 13 penalties for 133 yards, both Hall of Fame Bowl records. The Badgers also threw two interceptions. Kentucky, which was making its second straight postseason appearance in Birmingham, had no turnovers.

1994 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — The Wisconsin defense forced six turnovers, while the offense churned out 250 yards rushing as the Badgers downed UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. It was the Badgers' first-ever New Year's Day bowl victory.

More than 70,000 Badger fans attended the game and provided a distinct home-field advantage in the Bruins' home facility.

Tailback Brent Moss, the Rose Bowl MVP, helped the UW to a 14-3 halftime lead by scoring on a pair of short runs. Moss rushed for 158 yards on 36 carries.

Wisconsin extended its lead to 21-10 when Darrell Bevell provided the game's most unlikely play. On second down from the UCLA 21, Bevell broke containment and weaved his way to the end zone for the game-winning points.

Trailing 21-16, UCLA's final drive made it to the Badger 18-yard line before Wayne Cook was stopped and the clock expired before the Bruins could run another play.

"The win, as much as it was for our players and coaches, was for our fans," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "They supported us all the way."

1995 Hall of Fame

TAMPA, Fla. — Senior Terrell Fletcher rushed for a Hall of Fame Bowl-record 241 yards as Wisconsin won its second January bowl game in as many years with a 34-20 triumph over Duke.

Fletcher gained 190 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half to ice the win. Wisconsin intercepted three passes in the opening half. Jeff Messenger's 19-yard return of one of those pickoffs resulted in the Badgers' first score.

Duke eventually tied the game in the third period before Fletcher took over the contest. Fletcher broke the deadlock with a one-yard run late in the third quarter. Jason Burns extended the margin to 27-13 with an 11-yard reception from Darrell Bevell.

After the Blue Devils cut the margin to seven (27-20) on Robert Baldwin's second score, Fletcher turned a critical third-and-one play into a 49-yard touchdown run to clinch the win.

More than 30,000 fans made the trip to Tampa as UW won its third game in a row and second bowl in two years to close the season 8-3-1.

1996 Copper

TUCSON, Ariz. — Freshman tailback Ron Dayne concluded his remarkable rookie season with a 246-yard, three-touchdown performance in Wisconsin's 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl.

Dayne was named the game's Most Valuable Player. He totalled 152 yards by halftime as the Badgers opened up a commanding 31-3 lead. QB Mike Samuel got the UW on the board with a 38-yard run. After Utah kicked a field goal, Dayne scored (two carries for 77 yards) to give the Badgers a 14-3 lead.

The Utes were driving again when Cyrill Weems intercepted a pass and returned it 82 yards for a TD and a 21-3 bulge. The Badgers' secondary picked off four Mike Fouts passes.

The featured matchup between Dayne and Utah's Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala, the nation's two largest runners, never materialized. The Ute ballcarrier hurt his ankle early in the game.

Badger defensive end Tarek Saleh was game defensive MVP with six tackles, one for a loss, one pass broken up and a blocked field goal. It was the Badgers' third bowl win in four seasons.

1998 Outback

TAMPA, Fla. — A potent offense and suffocating defense were on display in Georgia's 33-6 win over the Badgers in the 1998 Outback Bowl.

Buoyed by a game MVP performance from Bulldog QB Mike Bobo (26-28 passing for 235 yards), the Bulldogs scored the game's opening 33 points. UGA completed 89.7 percent of its passes, the best-ever mark vs. a Badger defense.

A 12-yard pass from back-up quarterback Scott Kavanagh to tight end Dague Retzlaff was the Badgers' lone tally.

In a game that featured two of the nation's best runners — Wisconsin's Ron Dayne and Georgia's Robert Edwards — the Bulldog ballcarrier was the most effective. Edwards rushed for 110 yards and, more importantly, scored three TDs.

Georgia's multi-threat receiver Hines Ward caught a bowl-game record 12 passes (122 yards), threw one pass (incomplete) and rushed seven times (for eight yards).

"I don't think we played our best game," Wisconsin Coach Barry Alvarez said. "But I think Georgia had an awful lot to do with that."

1999 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — The 85th Rose Bowl was billed as a battle between Wisconsin's nationally rated defense and UCLA's vaunted offense. In truth, the Badgers' Ron Dayne rambled his way to four touchdowns and the UW defense got a stop in the final minute to earn a hard-fought 38-31 Rose Bowl triumph over the sixth-ranked Bruins.

UCLA's defense struggled to stop Dayne, whose 246 yards rushing were one yard shy of the game record. The Badgers mixed in some timely running (65 yards) and passing (154) from QB Mike Samuel in building a 31-21 lead in the third period.

The Bruins cut the lead to three on Jermaine Lewis' second TD and were driving again when freshman Jamar Fletcher intercepted All-American Cade McNown and returned the pick for a TD.

Once again, UCLA battled back and pulled within 38-31. The Bruins' last drive started on their 46-yard line with 1:42 left. Three incompletions by McNown set up Wendell Bryant's game-clinching sack on fourth down.

More than 55,000 Badger fans enjoyed the school's second Rose Bowl win. Dayne's record-setting performance earned him bowl MVP honors.

2000 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — In what was supposed to be a battle of high-powered offenses, the 86th Rose Bowl game between Wisconsin and Stanford ended up a defensive struggle.

The Badgers, getting a boost from Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne, rallied in the second half for a 17-9 win over the Cardinal. In the process, Wisconsin became the first Big Ten school in history to win the Rose Bowl in back-to-back seasons.

Dayne, whose 64-yard run on the second play of the second half energized the Big Ten champs, gained game MVP honors for the second year in a row. Dayne's stats in his final game as a Badger included 200 yards on 34 carries.

The Badger defense bottled up Stanford's running attack all game and limited the Cardinal to minus five yards rushing (tied for the second-best mark in school history). QB Todd Husak threw for 258 yards, but UW's defense dictated the action for most of the game.

Wisconsin had a 17-9 lead in the second half on TD runs by Dayne and Brooks Bollinger, but it took another defensive stand to clinch the win. Stanford's final drive ended when Husak was sacked on fourth down with just over a minute left.

2000 Sun

EL PASO, Texas. — A furious second-half comeback — including big plays on special teams, a turnover from the defense and a balanced offense — contributed to Wisconsin's 21-20 victory over UCLA in the 2000 Sun Bowl.

After falling behind 20-7 with a little more than one-and-a-half quarters left, Michael Bennett turned the momentum with a 54-yard kickoff return. Brooks Bollinger's three-yard TD pass to Chris Chambers brought the Badgers to within 20-14.

On UCLA's next drive, Ben Herbert made a key fourth-down stop on a fake field goal by the Bruins. The Badgers took over on their own 30-yard line and drove for the tying score, a six-yard run by Bennett. Vitaly Pisetsky's conversion was the winning point. The game was far from over.

UCLA had three more possessions, but the Badgers held each time and wrapped up the victory with Jamar Fletcher's interception in the final minute.

Bennett was named Special Teams MVP, while UCLA's Freddie Mitchell (9-180) was the game MVP.

Besides Bennett's TD run and Chambers' scoring catch, the Badgers got their other points from Lee Evans (54-yard catch). It was the Badgers' third bowl win over UCLA since 1994.

2002 Alamo

SAN ANTONIO, Texas — Wisconsin continued its remarkable run of success in bowl games, stunning 14th-ranked Colorado with a come-from-behind 31-28 overtime victory in the Alamo Bowl presented by MasterCard at the Alamodome.

It was the Badgers' seventh bowl win in eight tries.

Mike Allen booted a 37-yard field goal on Wisconsin's first possession of overtime to give the UW the victory. Colorado's Pat Brougham had missed a 45-yard field goal attempt on the Buffaloes' first OT possession.

Brooks Bollinger drove the Badgers 80 yards in 10 plays and capped the march with a 1-yard touchdown run with 51 seconds left in regulation to send the game to overtime. During the final regulation drive, the Badgers converted twice on fourth down.

Wisconsin overcame four turnovers by limiting the high-powered Colorado running game to just 123 yards rushing and 200 yards in total offense. Buffs running back Chris Brown, the nation's third-leading rusher, was held to 97 yards on 28 carries.

The Badgers accumulated 356 yards of total offense, including 99 yards rushing from Davis and 82 on the ground from Bollinger. Bollinger was 12-24 passing for 163 yards and two scores.

HISTORY

BADGERS VS. GOLDEN GOPHERS

There is more at stake than just a win or loss on the team record when Wisconsin and Minnesota face each other on the gridiron. The most-played rivalry in NCAA Division I-A football (112 meetings, including every year consecutively since 1907) is also a battle for possession of Paul Bunyan's Axe. The winner of the game each fall gets to keep the Axe on its campus.

"The records can be thrown away when these two rivals meet on the football field," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "It didn't take very long for me to understand the importance of the game and the history associated with it."

Probably not many people in attendance realized the history they were watching on Nov. 15, 1890. That was the first time that bordering state universities from Wisconsin and Minnesota met on the gridiron in Minneapolis.

The game was just the Badgers' fourth gridiron battle ever. The Golden Gophers won the inaugural battle 63-0, but the start of one of college football's hottest rivalries was born.

The schools met for 15 consecutive years after that (the Badgers won seven and the Golden Gophers won eight) before the series took a one-year hiatus in 1906.

The resumption of the series was a 7-7 tie in 1907 and the schools have met every year since. It is the longest-running rivalry in Division I-A football.

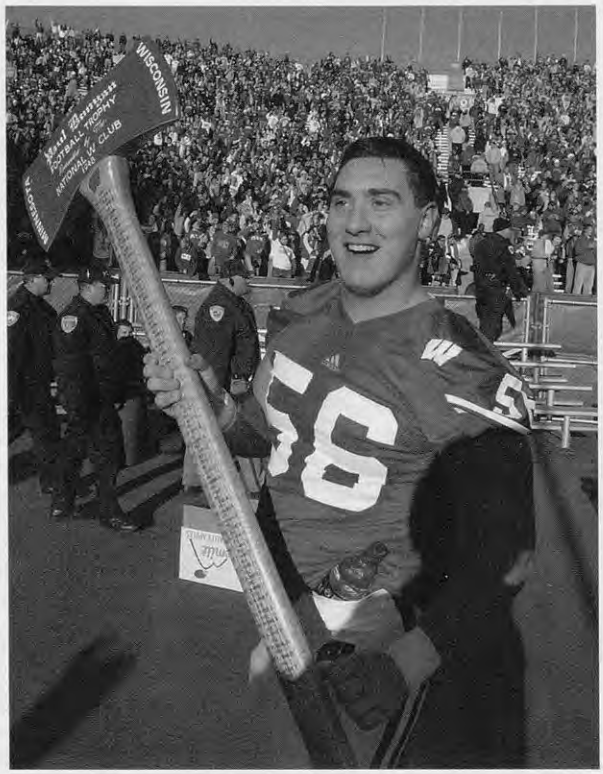
Madison and Minneapolis have alternated hosting the historic matchup since the beginning of the modern era in 1946.

Much prestige has always been associated with the game, but another factor was added in 1948. After Minnesota won a hard-fought 16-0 decision in 1948, the Wisconsin letterwinner's group (the National W Club) presented Minnesota with an axe wielded by legendary lumberjack Paul Bunyan.

Each year since, the winner of the annual battle between the Big Ten rivals is presented with the axe, complete with final scores painted on its handle, for display on its campus.

The Badgers have taken seven of the last eight games from their border rivals. Wisconsin also won six straight in the series between 1978-83.

In the all-time series, Minnesota holds a 58-46-8 advantage. Wisconsin has a 28-22-6 mark in Madison and the Gophers have registered a 36-17-2 mark in Minneapolis.



Wisconsin won back Paul Bunyan's Axe last season after a one-year hiatus.

There have been many notable contests between Wisconsin and Minnesota. Consider these:

- In 1961, Wisconsin intercepted three Gopher passes and upset No. 3-ranked Minnesota 23-21. The loss was Minnesota's only conference defeat of the season and cost it a share of the Big Ten title.
- No. 3 Wisconsin met fifth-ranked Minnesota in 1962 at Camp Randall Stadium. The Badgers, playing for a league title and Rose Bowl berth, won a 14-9 decision. Ralph Kurek scored the winning TD with just 1:37 left.
- Fifth-ranked Wisconsin dropped a 28-21 verdict at the Metrodome in 1993, costing the Badgers an undefeated season. "The loss to Minnesota in '93 might have cost us a national championship," said Alvarez. Wisconsin got a school-record 423 passing yards from Darrell Bevell, but UW had six turnovers.
- With Alvarez watching from a hospital bed after knee surgery, the 1999 Badgers escaped with a 20-17 win. Kicker Vitaly Pisetsky ended the first overtime game in school history with a 31-yard field goal.

"There are a lot of folks who have personal attachments to this matchup," Alvarez said. "The game is a critical one each season for our players and supporters."

SLAB OF BACON TROPHY

The Slab of Bacon Trophy was the precursor to Paul Bunyan's Axe as the prize for the winning team in the Wisconsin-Minnesota football series.

Apparently the trophy was given to the winning school by a sorority from the losing institution. The trophy was discontinued in the 1940s and was eventually discovered in a storage room at Camp Randall Stadium by an intern from the UW Men's Sports Information Office during a cleanup project.

The Slab of Bacon trophy is currently housed in the football offices at the UW. "We took home the bacon," Coach Barry Alvarez said in 1992, "and kept it."

COVERAGE GUIDELINES

The 2003 Wisconsin football guide has been produced to assist the news media with covering the Badgers. We have continued to try and add relevant materials to this publication each year and would welcome additions or corrections with proper documentation. Additional information on Wisconsin football will be produced throughout the year by the Sports Information Office. We also encourage you to regularly check the department's Web site (UWBADGERS.COM) to get updated information on the team. Our staff looks forward to working with you this fall.

Interview Requests

All Badger practices, including Friday walk-throughs, are closed to the media. Interviews are conducted as follows:

Alvarez Interviews

Barry Alvarez holds a weekly media conference Mondays at 1 p.m. during the fall. Those sessions are video-streamed live on UWBADGERS.COM. Alvarez' comments are available on UWBADGERS.COM late Monday afternoon as both a video archive and a transcript. Alvarez is available for interviews after practice Tuesday through Thursday.

Additionally, Alvarez is available every Tuesday from 11:50-noon CT on the Big Ten Teleconference.

Assistant Coach Interviews

Wisconsin assistant coaches are available after practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays in the basement of the McClain Center. If you wish to arrange a special interview with an assistant coach during the week, contact the Sports Information Office at (608) 262-1811.

Player Interviews

Badger players can be interviewed during the week on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after practice (approximately 6 p.m.) in the lower level of the McClain Center outside of the Wisconsin locker room area.

Phone calls by players to out-of-town media are made at the players' convenience between 7:30-10 p.m. CT on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only. Interviews should be arranged through Brian Lucas (608/262-1811) of the Sports Information Office. Home numbers will not be made available to the media, and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the SID staff.

The communications center at Camp Randall Stadium

Ordering Phone Lines

Several courtesy phone lines (credit card and collect calls only) on level four of the press box are available on a first-come, first-served basis for the news media. News organizations requiring their own phones should call Jamie Buchanan at (608) 265-8546 or email him at JB2@athletics.wisc.edu to order lines.

Credential Guidelines

Communications Center & Sideline Passes

Requests for credentials to cover Wisconsin football should be sent on company letterhead to: Sports Information Office, University of Wisconsin, 1440 Monroe Street, Madison, WI 53711. The fax number is (608) 262-8184. Requests should be received at least 10 days in advance of the game.

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and reporters on assignment. You must display both a credential and an armband prominently to be on the field level. Your media credential alone will not give you access to the sidelines. Armbands can be picked up in the Reinke Room (north end) of the Field House. Media members cannot work between the 25-yard lines as recommended by the NCAA in its game management manual.

Credentials will be mailed if time permits. Those passes which cannot be mailed will be left with the parking attendant (white vehicle) at the entrance of Lot 17 on Engineering Drive (north end of the Stadium).

Credentials will be issued according to the following priorities: 1) TV and radio stations originating a live broadcast; 2) national publications, newspapers filing for the following day's publication and news outlets designated by the visiting SID; 3) TV and radio stations covering for nightly news; and 4) other requests, which will be evaluated on a space-available basis. Spouses, dates, non-workers and children are not allowed in the media areas as dictated by the NCAA. Anyone violating these standards will be denied credentials to future games.

RADIO COVERAGE

Radio coverage

For the ninth year in a row, exclusive radio coverage of Badger football can be heard on the 43-city Wisconsin Radio Network. The Department of Athletics and Learfield Communications / Badger Sports Properties entered into an agreement for radio broadcast rights for football and basketball in 1994.

WIBA-AM (1310 AM) and WIBA-FM (101.5 FM) are the rights holders in the Madison market, and WTMJ (620 AM) carries the games in Milwaukee.

Entering his ninth season handling play-by-play duties for Wisconsin football is Matt Lepay, named the state's Sportscaster of the Year for 1997 and 2000. Lepay has also called Badger basketball the past 14 seasons. A 1984 graduate of Ohio State, Lepay was sports director at WTSO in Madison before joining WIBA in 1994. He previously served as sports director at WNCI in Columbus, and prior to that worked at stations in Athens and Piqua, Ohio. Lepay is host of the Barry Alvarez Show (Badger Sports Report), both on WIBA Radio and WISC-TV.

Color commentary on radio broadcasts is provided by Mike Lucas, long-time sports columnist at The Capital Times. Lucas, who worked previously on the broadcast team for the Badgers' delay television package on the Wisconsin Public Television Network, also provides sports commentaries on WIBA. Lucas and Lepay are co-hosts of the popular WIBA Sports Review and Lucas also hosts "Sidelines", a talk-show on UPN14. He has reported on Badger sporting events for The Capital Times since 1971. Lucas has been a color analyst (radio and TV) for Badger football, men's basketball and men's hockey during his career.

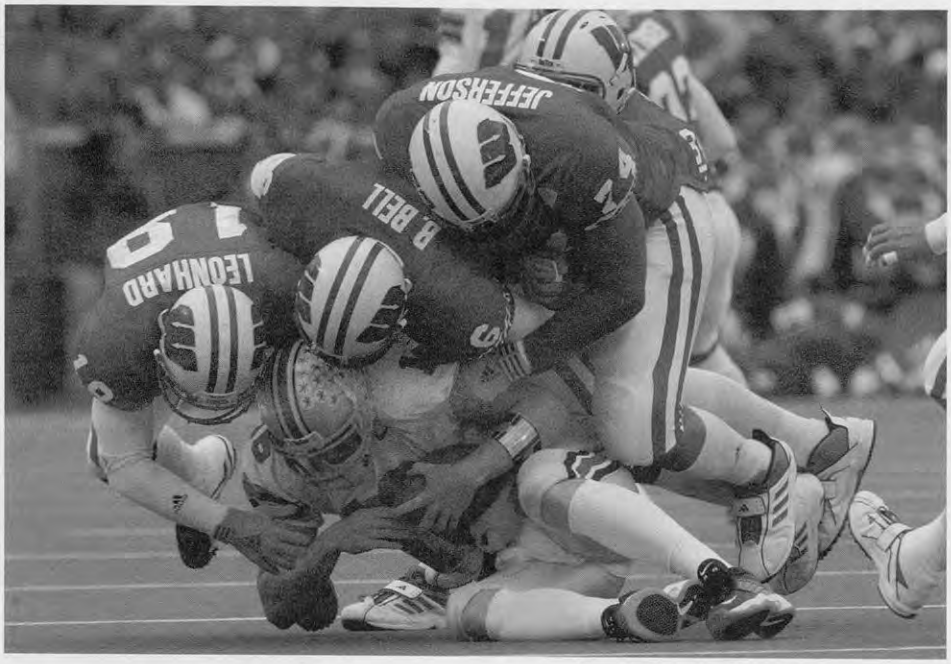
BADGER FUND



To sustain the kind of academic and athletic success that has characterized the UW-Madison as one of the nation's finest athletic programs, there must be widespread support.

That support begins at the top, through the commitment of the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System, the UW-Madison Chancellor's Office and the Athletic Board. That commitment extends to the thousands of Badger boosters throughout the nation who contribute in many different ways.

Ultimately, the success of the Department of Athletics depends in great part on the collective loyalty and generosity of alumni and friends. One of the areas in which people can support Wisconsin Athletics is through their contributions to the Badger Fund.

The Badger Fund was started to enhance the University's athletic programs by helping to financially support more than 750 student-athletes in 23 sports as they strive for excellence both academically and athletically.

Because the UW-Madison Athletic Department receives virtually none of its $54 million annual budget from state appropriations, private support is essential to its continued success.

Contributions to the Badger Fund from more than 14,000 individuals and companies fund the scholarship needs of student-athletes and help provide the finest public university education and athletic facilities experiences available.

Your continued support will help UW student-athletes achieve their academic and athletic dreams, and will assist the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics in its effort to reach lofty goals both on the field and in the classroom.

MENDOTA GRIDIRON CLUB

The Mendota Gridiron Club, incorporated in 1979, originated as the Mendota Association in 1949. From the original small group of strong and loyal Wisconsin football fans, the club has grown over the years and members currently number in the thousands. Today, members have the opportunity to assist the football staff in continuing the successful program established in recent years.

Any individual may become a member of the Mendota Gridiron Club, Inc., by contributing money, material or services needed and requested by the Athletic Department for the football program. All contributions (cash or in kind) entitle the contributor to membership status for the calendar year in which the contribution is made.

Contributions made to the Mendota Gridiron Club will earn credit in the Badger Fund Priority Point Sysytem and count toward your annual giving levels and related Badger Fund benefits.

Benefits of membership in the Mendota Gridiron Club, which has regional clubs throughout Wisconsin and Illinois, include weekly meetings during the football season, sponsorship of the annual football banquet, a party to celebrate the end of recruiting season in February, the annual Barry Alvarez Shoot Out golf tournament and the Alvarez Invitational golf tournament.

For more information, or to join the Mendota Gridiron Club, call 608-262-7200 or write the organization at: 1440 Monroe Street, Madison, WI 53711.

A World-Class University

The University of Wisconsin, one of the nation's largest and most productive institutions of higher education, is dedicated to the support of academic freedom.

Founded in 1848, the first class of 17 students enrolled February 5, 1849. Today, Wisconsin ranks as the nation's ninth largest university with 41,507 students.

On a single campus, students can find a complete spectrum of liberal arts studies, professional programs and student activities. Wisconsin has ranked among the top educational institutions in the country in every published survey of faculty and administrators since the early 1900s.

As one of the nation's first land-grant universities, Wisconsin maintains a strong research emphasis in agricultural and life sciences. Award-winning research spanning the academic disciplines, however, has earned Wisconsin a place among the world's elite institutions of higher education. The quality of its undergraduate, graduate and research programs is recognized around the world.

The flagship school of the state system, UW–Madison offers the only public schools of law, medicine and veterinary medicine in the state and is one of only two state-supported schools to offer doctoral degrees.

One of the most picturesque college campuses in the country, Wisconsin sits along the shore of beautiful Lake Mendota. The city of Madison and the University were designed to be linked, signifying the interrelated nature of academic and political life at Wisconsin.

Bascom Hall serves as the centerpiece of the campus. It sits atop the beautiful tree-lined Bascom Hill, which offers a magnificent view of downtown Madison.

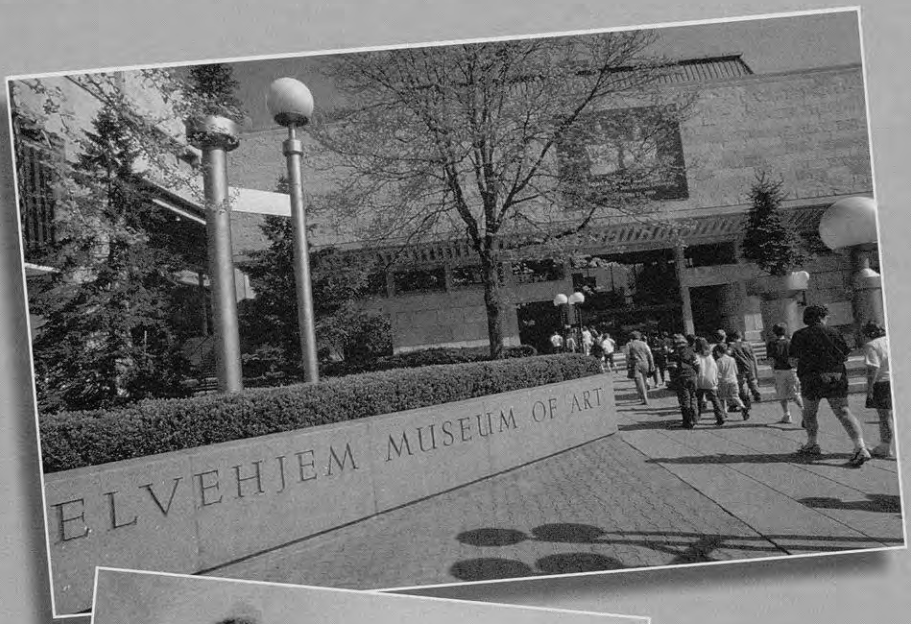
STUDENT LIFE



Top: The Elvehjem Museum of Art offers free exhibitions of art works to support the teaching, research and public service missions of the UW.

Bottom: The Reverend Jesse Jackson is just one of many famous people who have visited Wisconsin.

Student life at Wisconsin is more than books, term papers and exams. Some of the most important lessons learned at Wisconsin occur far from any lecture hall or lab.

UW students come from every county in the state, every state in the nation and over 100 countries around the world. Wisconsin ranks third in the nation in total foreign student enrollment. The UW is designed to encourage involvement— academically and socially. Students come here to be part of something bigger—to choose from a range of options seldom found.

More than 680 student organizations, extensive recreational programs, modern fitness facilities, performing arts groups, Big Ten athletics, and ongoing cultural, social, and political events will provide you with hundreds of ways to get involved and challenge yourself. Whatever your interests, you can connect with others who share your enthusiasm.

The hub of student life on campus is the Memorial Union. With good food, live music, freshly made Babcock ice cream, movies and study lounges, you can eat well, be entertained, enjoy a good book or good company. The Union welcomes over 15,000 students through its doors each day. It's no wonder the Union is considered the "living room of campus."

• • •

"The primary purpose of the University of Wisconsin-Madison is to provide a learning environment in which faculty, staff, and students can discover, examine critically, preserve and transmit the knowledge, wisdom and values that will help ensure the survival of this and future generations and improve the quality of life for all."

DID YOU KNOW?

Wisconsin is the only university in the nation with two student newspapers.

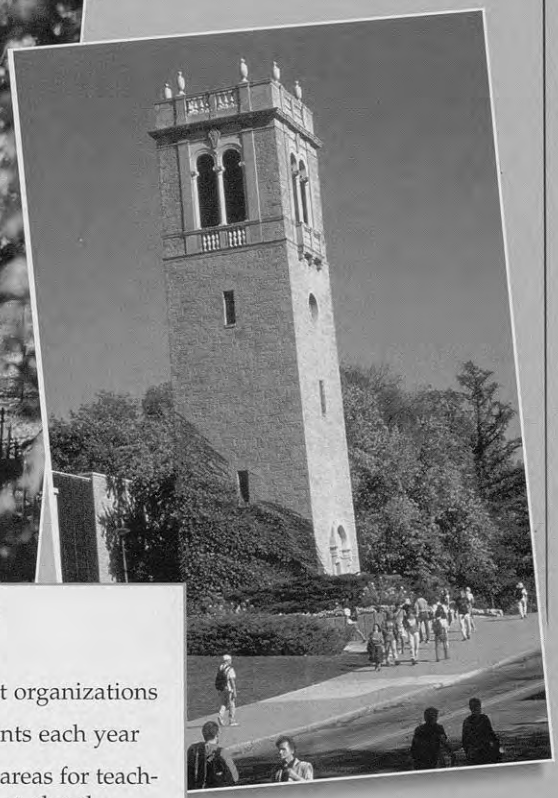
A Beautiful Campus

The University of Wisconsin campus rolls for 930 acres along the shores of Lake Mendota, encompassing wooded hills, friendly shores, and the streets of downtown Madison.

Relax on the Memorial Union terrace with sailboats, canoes, sailboards, and kayaks in the background. The Lakeshore Path is a pedestrian and bicycle-only trail that runs from the Union to Picnic Point, a peninsula that juts out into Lake Mendota. Along the way are numerous beaches or spots to stop and enjoy the beautiful lake views.

Spend an hour alone with your thoughts walking the trails of the UW Arboretum, a 1,300-acre nature preserve right in the middle of the city. Or visit Wisconsin's majestic State Capitol building only minutes away from campus.

And if ever you find yourself with a free afternoon, you may wish to enjoy lunch or a latte with friends at one of the many restaurants lining State Street in the heart of downtown Madison.



OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

In the last 10 years, the University of Wisconsin has hosted five NCAA championships and an NCAA men's basketball regional.

The Badgers have played host to the NCAA Men's Ice Hockey championship in 1993 and 1997. The 1993 event sold out in three months, the fastest sellout in NCAA hockey history.

Wisconsin played host to the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship in 1993 and 1998. The Badgers shattered the attendance records for the championship match and two-day event both years.

The UW was also the site of the 1998 NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championship. The event was the first national championship held at University Ridge Golf Course and the first women's championship shown live on national television.

The NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament came to Wisconsin in 2002 when the Badgers played host to a regional in the Kohl Center.

WISCONSIN ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Wisconsin-Madison dedicates itself to the mission of providing athletic opportunities to a wide range of students and an environment in which all student-athletes can achieve their academic and competitive goals. The Division strives to provide equitable opportunities for all student-athletes and staff, regardless of gender or ethnic background. To honor its academic mission and that of the university, the Division supports the educational aspirations, academic progress and general welfare of the student-athlete. In competition, the Division fosters principles of sportsmanship, respect and fair play. In all of its activities, the Division insists on integrity, ethical conduct and accountability.

Badger Nickname

The nickname "Badgers," was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin, which was dubbed the "Badger State." The name didn't come from the animals in the region, but rather from an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like Badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bucky Badger

Although badgers in various forms had been the University of Wisconsin mascot for decades, the version that is currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by professional illustrator Art Evans.

In 1949, a student wore a badger outfit with a papier-mâché head at the homecoming game. A pep rally was held to determine the mascot's name—Buckingham U. Badger.

Bud Song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "You've said it all," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karen for Budweiser beer commercials. The song has become legendary at the UW because of its polka-like rhythm.

Fifth Quarter

The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer the band as it plays traditional favorites like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song.

On Wisconsin

The tune was composed in 1909 by William Purdy, with the words written by UW alumnus Carl Beck, who rewrote them in 1951. Some 2,500 schools and colleges have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs.

BADGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Madison community is extremely supportive of the University of Wisconsin athletic teams and its many student-athletes. In return for that support, many student-athletes take time out of their busy schedule s to show their appreciation and involvement in the city of Madison and Dane Country through their community service efforts.

Student-athletes have assisted in a variety of service projects including the AIDS Support Network, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, Habitat for Humanity, Special Olympics, United Way, Very Special Arts, visiting children in local hospitals with the Amanda the Panda program, and volunteering at local schools in the Bookin' It with Bucky program. The athletic department also donates a number of tickets and memorabilia to local charities for fund-raising purposes.

NCAA Compliance

As a member of the Big Ten Conference, Western Collegiate Hockey Association, and the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), the University of Wisconsin must abide by many rules and regulations. Below is general information on how these guidelines apply to prospective student-athletes and representative of athletics interests.

Definitions

A prospective student-athlete is any student who has started classes for the ninth grade. Before the ninth grade, one becomes a prospective student-athlete if a college gives the individual (or his/her relatives or friends) any financial aid or other benefits that the college does not provide to prospective students generally.

A prospective student-athlete is recruited at a particular university when its coach approaches the prospect (or any member of the prospect's family) about enrolling and participating in athletics at that college by any one of the following three ways:

- Providing an official visit to the university's campus;
- Having an arranged, in-person, off-campus encounter with a prospect or the prospect's family; or
- Placing more than one telephone call to a prospect or any other member of his/her family.

A representative of the UW's athletics interests ("booster") is anyone who...

- is an alumnus of the UW
- has contributed to a Badger athletic program.
- has helped arrange employment of enrolled and prospective UW student-athletes.
- has been involved in any way promoting the Badger athletic program.

The Recruiting Process

Institutional staff members have very specific guidelines when it comes to recruiting that vary by sport. The major areas are: telephone calls, contacts, evaluations, campus visits, correspondence, and highlight films/videotapes.

In addition to general recruiting regulations, no booster can be involved in recruiting (e.g., no phone calls, letters, or in-person contacts).

Eligibility

Prospects who intend to participate in Division I intercollegiate athletics must register with and be certified by the NCAA Initial Eligibility Clearinghouse. Please contact your high school counselor for more information on this process, especially regarding the requirements to be eligible.

Extra Benefits

By NCAA definition, an extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a booster to provide a student-athlete or a student-athlete's relative or friend a benefit that is not expressly authorized by NCAA legislation. This is prohibited. If the benefit is demonstrated to be generally available to ALL UW STUDENTS or their relatives or friends determined on a basis unrelated to athletic ability, it is not a violation of NCAA rules.

Extra benefits are also not permissible for prospective student-athletes. They are called offers and inducements, and include any benefit such as cash, clothing, cars, improper expenses, transportation, gifts or loans to encourage you to sign a National Letter of Intent or attend an NCAA university.

UW Compliance On-Line Training Program Compliance Rules and Regs is a compliance training program available on the internet. Student-athletes, coaches and designated athletic department staff are required to complete the program, while boosters are encouraged to participate. Please go to www.uwbadgers.com under the tab for "Compliance" to check it out.

Since this is not an all-inclusive summary, we encourage you to contact the UW Compliance Office at (608) 265-2973 with any questions. Information can also be found on the web at www.uwbadgers.com and www.ncaa.org.

FETZER STUDENT-ATHLETE CENTER

The Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Center has been helping Wisconsin student-athletes to achieve their academic goals since 1997.

The 15,000 square-foot, state-of-the-art facility serves the needs of all student-athletes. The center features an open area with carrels that can accommodate up to 30 students. There are 11 study rooms of different shapes and sizes, including a 55-seat auditorium. A computer room houses 40 PCs while the entire center is wired with voice/data jacks and power ports.

Director David Harris supervises a staff of five advisors and three learning specialists who conduct the academic services offered to the more than 800 student-athletes. The advising staff of Tom Browne, Chris Butler, Jerry Darda, Mary Weaver-Klees and Alan Zussman along with learning specialists Doug Tiedt, Maryellen Rock and Nancy Gatyas, have a comprehensive understanding of academics at Wisconsin, and a permanent line of communication with all university departments. The staff renders quality academic and personal support to student-athletes and assists coaches in providing the best possible collegiate experience.

Student-athletes can drop in before practice or between classes to study or meet with the advisors and grant-in-aid staff whose offices are located in the center.

The Fetzer Student-Athlete Academic Services Center, a state-of-the-art facility located in the lower level of the McClain Center, opened in 1997. The $2.1 million center is one of the best in the nation and includes 11 study rooms, a computer room, and a 55-seat auditorium.

B.I.G. R.E.D. LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

The University of Wisconsin dedicates itself to providing athletic opportunities to a wide range of students and an environment in which all student-athletes can achieve their academic and competitive goals.

The BIG RED (Building Integrity while Growing through Responsible and Educated Decisions) Life Skills Program, under the direction of Mike Moss, provides support to enable student-athletes to grow intellectually, physically, socially, emotionally and ethically.

- Academic Excellence
- Athletic Excellence
- Commitment to Serve
- Career Preparation
- Development of Personal Growth
- Development of Leadership

Advising sessions are offered on a one-to-one basis at a time appropriate for the student-athlete. Athletes are degree-oriented while allowing for the flexibility to explore different areas. The advising staff takes a personal approach to each student-athlete in determining his or her individual needs, personal or academic.

Student-athletes at Wisconsin receive recognition for outstanding academics in a number of ways. The Big Ten Conference honors scholar-athletes with Academic All–Big Ten honors while the UW Athletic Board recognizes Athletic Board Scholars for the highest grade-point average in each sport. In addition, student-athletes may be nominated for Academic All-America honors through the sports information office.

Endowed Athletic Scholarships

As more and more colleges and universities turn to innovative and effective ways of meeting the mounting financial challenges of supporting their intercollegiate athletic programs, it becomes increasingly evident that one of the most successful strategies is the establishment of endowed athletic scholarships.

At the University of Wisconsin-Madison, endowment funds to support athletic scholarships are normally created through gifts to the UW Foundation. A portion of the income from the endowed fund is used each year for scholarship support, and the remainder is reinvested in the principal.

The following endowed scholarships, named for the donor or for someone the donor wishes to honor, provide full or partial grants-in-aid to Badger student-athletes. Many thanks to our generous supporters!

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is a key component in all of the Badger teams' success on the playing field. The program's goal is to increase the overall performance of each student-athlete, prevent injuries and help athletes reach their potential.

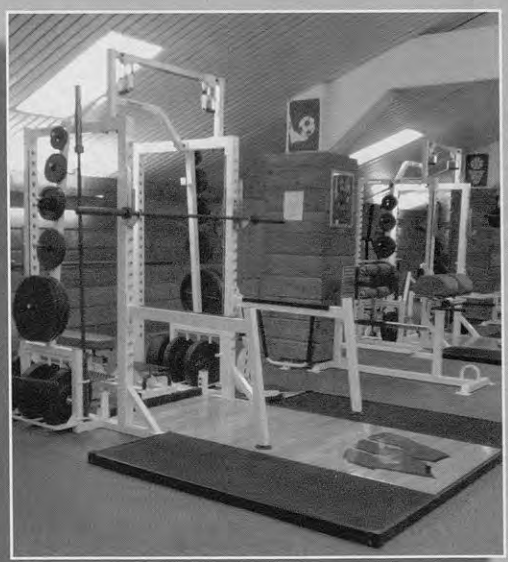
Strength and conditioning coordinator John Dettmann along with assistants Kerri Ariens, Brian Bott, Ben Herbert, Scott Hettenbach, Mike Potenza and Jim Snider work with the UW coaches to develop training programs to enhance each athlete's performance.

Badger athletes work on their strength programs in weight rooms in the McClain Center, Kohl Center and Camp Randall Stadium.

The McClain Center weight room is the largest of the facilities and features more than 45,000 pounds of free weights and more than 50 weight machines. The room has seven squat racks, eight bench press stations, eight flat-to-incline benches, six Olympic lift platforms and numerous other free weight stations.

The Kohl Center weight room is equipped with five custom-built free weight power platforms and 4000 pounds of free weights. The room has nine pieces of cardiovascular equipment and three Vertimax jump trainers.

The Badger Den has five power stations with each station consisting of a platform for Olympic style lifting as well as a squat rack, bench press, incline bench press, pull-up station and a dip station. There are three lat-pull machines and seated row machines, a complete set of dumbbells and a complete set of plyometric boxes.



Wisconsin student-athletes benefit from seven full-time strength and conditioning coaches as well as three weight rooms in the McClain Center (top), Kohl Center (middle) and Camp Randall Stadium (right).

"The goal of the Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is to train for total athletic excellence. We profile each student-athlete upon arrival and set up specific training regimens to help athletes reach their individual potential. The plan is to build overall strength, speed, agility and stamina. Our program is comprehensive and the end result is that we are as productive on the athletic field as possible."
